

I Thomas Pearman being of sound mind but ill health do make this my last will and testament revoking all others. I give all my real and personal Estate as follows, with one exception which I will hereafter mentioned first to Marston Williams and his son Albert Williams his Williams and Annie Williams and one hundred Dollars to be paid in Money out of the above Estate to Phil Williams her son, and to Patsy Pearman my sister which is the wife of Parker Bailey the tract of land which they live on now and called Hillsides formerly owned by my father Thos Pearman and I request my friend James P. Miles to Administer on my Estate. Witness my hand & seal this 8th day of March, 1884.

Witness

Thomas Pearman (Seal)
mark

Wm C. Burris

James P. Miles

Sam S. Collins

We the Jury upon the afore found do say that we ascertain that this paper writing propounded as the last will and testament of Thomas Pearman, dated the 8th day of March 1884 and witnessed by Williams C. Burris James P. Miles and Sam S. Collins is the true last will and testament of the said Thomas Pearman deceased.

R. B. Farnsworth
New Kent County, Virginia Will No. 2, 1880-1891
www.virginiapioneers.net

In the Circuit Court of New Kent December 13th 1887.

and to Patsy Pearman my sister which is the wife of Pardus Bailey the tract of land which they live on now and called Hillside formerly owned by my father Thos Pearman and I request my friend James P Miles to Administer on my Estate. Witness my hand & seal this 8th day of March 1884.
Witness
Thomas ^{his} Pearman (Seal) ~~mark~~

Wm C Burris

James P Miles

Sam S Collins

We the jury upon the afore found do say that we ascertain that this paper writing propounded as the last will and testament of Thomas Pearman dated the 8th day of March 1884 and witnessed by William C Burris James P Miles and Sam S Collins is the true last will and testament of the said Thomas Pearman deceased.

R. B. Fumelleberry

In the Circuit Court of New Kent December 13th 1887
The foregoing will of Thomas Pearman died was Established as such in the Circuit Court of New Kent County and recorded.

Teste

J N Harris Clerk

John A. Davis, hereby revoking all other wills made by me, do make this