

I know all men by their friends, that J. William Dean Esq.
of New Kent County, Virginia, as master this my last will and Testament, leaving all others.

1st I bequeath to each of my sons, Bartholomew, William A.
and Robert Dunbridge, the sum of five hundred and of my personal effects, after the payment of my just debts.

2nd I bequeath to my daughter Betty to Mary, Virginia, and Florine
the residue of my personal effects.

3rd I desire my Executor herein after named to see the farm upon

I now reside, as soon as practicable after my death, and to divide the proceeds of the same among my four legitimate children, to whom I give the same after the payment of costs of sale.

4th It is my wish and desire that my said Executor, see all of my personal property for cash, and the farm on each term as he may deem best.

5th I hereby appoint my son Robert Dunbridge the Executor of this my last will and Testament, as testifies my hand and seal the 27th day of September in the year 1881.

William Dean Esq. Dealy

Witness in the presence of Landon Rogers and M. S. S. S. S.
who signed in the presence of each other and in the presence of the testatrix.

3rd I desire my Executor herein after named to sell the farm upon -

I now reside, as soon as practicable after my death, and to divide the proceeds of the same among my heirs, before mentioned excepted, in whom I give the same upon the promise of care of said.

4th It is my wish and desire that my said Executor, sell all of my personal property for cash, and the sum on each time as he may deem best,

5th I hereby appoint my son Robert Dandridge the Executor of this my last will and Testament, on Tuesday my heirs and I on the 27th day of September in the year 1881.

William Dandridge (Seal)

Witness in the presence of Lecton Royce and M. Satchell,
who signed in the presence of each
other and in the presence of the testator.

In presence of William Dandridge Junr 12th 1882.

The foregoing will was the day put into exec. prod by the Oaths of Lecton Royce, and M. Satchell, Subscribing before them, as the last will and Testament of Mr William Dandridge, and ordered to be recorded.

Given

E. M. Brink Clerk.