Edm. Corbett, clerk

In the name of God, Amen.

In view of the uncertainty of life, and desiring to settle my worldly affairs while I have strength and ability so to do, and with sound and disposing mind and memory I William J. Carter, of the county of New Kent, State of Va do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament. It is my will that all my just debts be paid as soon as they can conveniently, by my executors herein named after my decease.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Emily, during her life, and after her death to my son, William, all of the farm in the county of New Kent, upon which I reside, with all the stock & buildings thereon, with their furniture and appurtenances.

I give and devise to my daughter, Alice the sum of one dollar. Should she ever make application therefor I hereby nominate and appoint my wife without security, as the executor of this my last will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of April, 1878.

Wm J. Carter (Seal)
