Handwritten notes in the left margin, including "Handwritten notes" and "Handwritten notes".

Handwritten text in the main body of the page, appearing to be a legal or historical document. The text is written in a cursive script and is mostly illegible due to fading and the quality of the scan. It appears to be a record of a transaction or a legal proceeding, mentioning various parties and locations.

Handwritten signatures and dates at the bottom of the page. The signatures are written in a cursive script and are mostly illegible. The dates are written in a cursive script and are mostly illegible.

Some of William Berkeley to greeting in our Lord god everlasting eternity. Dear Sir, by our last will in Christ we had given and humble thanks to the Willing for that they was the 15th of June 1664 that we were given all power I have thought it my duty of all wills of Christ and we are now and will give under my hand

William Berkeley. to of Virginia.
and I am William Berkeley her of our Lord God Everlasting Memory Did I not will and consent in Augustine, and that they did for the sake of lower people and a a profit of God will might and authority. It hardly gives singular for good. Rightly and to know the certain meaning of My beloved friends

About four years since Edward died in your family and his widow who for the last time was thought to have been the Director of the I have had several papers from my friends in England to enquire how he was disposed of so I would not do so till now that his father is here that may give an account to you what he did at and how he was managed. I hope Edward was an generous, sensible & the Governor of your family. I should like to give you to see all the papers in the last paper that they may give you a full account how he did at and how he was managed. In doing this perfectly you will discharge your own trust and duty, and oblige me with an
