65 I am so fatigued and again so disappointed that I have little hope of being of much service to you.
I am, your sincere friend, Wm. A. R. S.

My dear Mr. Borden
I have been thinking of you and your family and of the many ways in which you are improving the world. I am sure that you will be very successful in all your endeavors. I am your friend and will do all in my power to assist you.

Yours truly

Handwritten text on the bottom page of the manuscript, likely a continuation of the previous page. The text is written in a cursive script and is mostly illegible due to fading and the angle of the page. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to the botanical or geographical descriptions on the previous page.

Whereas John Briggs was found about four years since to have been paid for procuring pay for a ship that was killed and none of his and the Court the said Briggs protesting that he did not ought to pay therefor he is the Court taking into consideration, have thought fit to refer the definitive unto the said Mr. Briggs or his assigns to pay and produce a certificate from under the hand of the said Court that he hath acknowledged paying for killing of the said ship.

Whereas our William the Attorney of Edward Wilson has desired the opinion of the Court in a difference between him and Mr. W. Robinson Attorney of the said Briggs concerning the charge of the ship that the the charge him with in an action of ransom brought by him all during the said ship. It is the opinion of the Court that the said Robinson ought to pay the said ship.
