Whereas by act of assembly the Clarke of the Court is enjoined to deliver each year or any other when in order, and manner, but now for the year since last by the act or any other, wherefore it is by the Court thought fit and ordered that there shall be for the future allowed four pounds of tobacco for the year and no more

Whereas it appeared to the Court that many who were lately returned out of the Barbadoes Court, in this last year, were of the John Randall, but lately not known to the Court. It is therefore ordered that the said many who are of John Randall, appear before Mr. Geo. Bray at his house upon minning, where if there is a law upon sale, that he be sold to John Randall in the shape of the Barbadoes Court, to be put in security to and to the Court, and upon default of security to be committed to the Sheriff's custody

Whereas it has been by frequent practice in the County for the churchwardens of each parish to collect the several ministers' dues and for the inhabitants to bring their tobacco to the churchwarden's place, by the churchwarden's appointment, it is now found to be very inconvenient, partly for the inhabitants and churchwardens, because many hours are spent in going or both of the tobacco sold, wherefore it is thought fit ordered and established as law in the County, that for the future, each church in the County shall be enjoined to collect the same in Books, either and be allowed 10 p. Cent, the being answerable for the same as for the collection

Whereas by act of assembly all ordinary keepers have liberty granted them to be drunk at 10 p.
