 Thomas W. W.
 John F. Griffith Esq.
 Ordered to be recorded Apr 11th May 1842
 To the Wm. L. L. Esq. for the County of Lower Norfolk
 The third part of Louis Barré

Humble thanks,
And to let you your p^{re} was fond of the wood to put for killing unmarried people, and Liberty order that your p^{re} should with up a gun In the woods, I was for it in may it please your worship that your p^{re} having a great many people with in the woods the woods did for and that he might have killed some or some of the neighbours who had Liberty put out, but now your p^{re} doth understand your worship that your p^{re} will never commit the like or any other such offence, but the next having Liberty to up in gun is a very great offence to your p^{re} and having a great family to maintain.

I & the Elders heartily pray, your most the grant him the liberty to be his gain, and your post will never commit any offence to the Law or any other Statute,
 And your post as in duty bound shall pray

 Gentlemen of the Jury this is your charge you are to understand that the majority of our forefathers had to kind say now lay a judge you are to inquire where it is, and by what means the cause of this but, and after a due & just inquiry made you are to deliver your verdict in his majesty's behalf signed with your hands, but keep your good secrets as July 1862 We of the Jury according to the charge above written do find to the best of our judgment having perched into the life and marrow marrow of the matter above depending we is the death of one of his majesty's subjects by name Thomas Gilbert do find to evidence you swear that he was killed with a knife by Jas. Wm. Harris the being at the time in a distracted condition so far as by evidence before us appears, to which we have submitted our hands this 28 July 1862

The deposition of Geo^r Jordan aged 40 years or thereabouts examined & sworn before me, that about seven months ago I frequently go through of Capt Wm Clark, and for the major part of the time was a joyous person in all w^h time the dependent persons there nor heard any words of difference between Capt. Clark & Thomas Gilbert. But but often heard the Capt. Clark give a very good commendation of his temper and goodness, and always showed him great respect to him until Saturday, the 1st day of July, being upon a Comp. at the Capt. Clark & Jⁿ. Quin, at the house of Richard Harris. That upon often said the Capt. Clark said to the Jⁿ. Quin that he had 4 Eys & 2 noses & 2 mouths, and also said to your dependent that he had 4 Eys & 2 noses & 2 mouths more, upon which time, came to the table two men forced him out of the room at the table of about mentioned Quin & Wmox and your agent in Comp. w^h him, upon the above mentioned the Gilbert came down the stairs from the garret, and the Capt. saying the Jⁿ. Quin was Capt. Clark desired the Jⁿ. Quin to get down the stairs, and after a little space took a knife in his hand, and thrust it at the Jⁿ. Quin Gilbert, and to the life of your dependent knowing that the Capt. Clark was in a frankish fit, and knew not what he did at the time of the Jⁿ. Quin, with the Jⁿ. Quin.
