

In the Name of God Amen I Charles Smith Minister of Portsmouth Parish ~~do hereby~~ make my last will & Testament. I give unto my grand Daughter Abigail Taylor Five Hundred & Twenty Pounds Currency of my Mollatts Woman Mary. & my new Bible I give unto my grand Daughter Margret Taylor Five Hundred Pounds currency & my negro Girl Sylvia to be paid to each of them when they attain eighteen years of Age my Executor not accountable for any Interest Till that Period I give unto Mrs Rebecca Weston and Mrs Francis Jameson Ten Pound each as a small token of my regard for them I give unto my Friends Matthew Phipps Anne Phipps (Other ways - Wright) & my God Daughter Anne Tweny or Boush a proper ring each of them as a small token of my good will and of which I beg their Acceptance - I give unto my Mollatts Woman Mary three months of her Time fifty Pounds in Money and my Old 4 to Bible with the spinning and Weaving Gears and implements in or about the house with her flather ~~be~~. I give unto my Daughter Alice Smith (~~Alice~~ ^{alias} Taylor) all other Real or personal Estate I may have at my death, whatsoever my debts to be paid if any My Manuscript's to be ~~burned~~ ^{burned} my Body to be buried Decently in a plain Pine Coffin near where I ~~lie~~

...give unto my Daughter Alice Smith (~~Alice~~ Taylor) all other Real or Personal Estate I may have at my death, whatsoever my debts to be paid if any. My Manuscript's to be ^{burned} ~~transcribed~~ my Body to be buried Decently in a plain Pine Coffin near a cherry Tree bearing about
S. W. from this house and upon this Gleebe I appoint my Dearest
Friend & Son in Law James Taylor & his wife Alice Smith or Taylor Executors of this my Will my Estate neither to be Appraised nor Inventoried but they to take it into their immediate possession
Signed & sealed this 24th January Anno Domini 1771 —
William Playsted, Francis Miller,

My Will now is that after my within Mentioned Maltreated Woman Mary Waite in my Grand Daughter Abigail Taylor one year after my decease hereforward I emancipate & set her free with all her future gone for ever October 30. 1772. —
Test
Wm Playsted
Francis Miller
Charles Smith Test
January Court 1773. proved &c as by Order Book