

William Thompson, Clerk of the Court, Francis Dixon, Wm Granbery
William Hodges

The above Will was proved the 21st day of May 1752 in Foster Book

Test Sam Bond 1752

A Nuncupative Will of Mrs Elizabeth P. was made and declared the second day of May 1752 Testatrix was in her proper senses to the best of her Dependants knowledge & Belief being at the day above mentioned, in her last Illness who was designed to give the Bulk or Chief part of her Estate to in case of her Death. Answered that she gave it to Mary Fisher her Sister Daughter & the Mary

John Drury her Brother Law. she the said Elizabeth Warren gave the two her maid down the Alley Lane called Goshay A. to Mary Fishley.
Mrs. Higginbotham lived in she gave to Esther in yard to be up the said Mary Fishley.
James Bridget to the said Elizabeth
g. st. 8th Charles - of Losch Charles - sister of the said Mary Fishley Charles - to die without him the part share - said John Drury. And she Warren moved further that she had seen given her meaning the said Mary Fishley For hand, a Silver Cup, a pair Salt S^{rs}.
A Dozen Silver Table Spoons, a pair of Silver Tea Spoons For bed & furniture and all was the the said Elizabeth Warren gave Be - to bring her up. And she gave to them id Mary Dr. the - a mourning? old Ring st

Dr. And two. I believe she then to be better to buy Maline in at the time and nothing in particular consider of her estate. I wish and meaning the above words; a person to use the said Elizabeth Warren the said.

know she would dispose of her estate; and the same between the little girl she had for a living the said Mary Dickley and her.

Son, John Drury. And the said Eliz. Warren two better and more at length for in had for what she had got, or, at to do so too, I am sure of the subscribers in and words were spoken that

John

Dr. 14

That

But

The above title was proved by the 11th and

Bark
San Francisco