

Whereas John Harrison of the County of Norfolk and Town of Portsmouth, did while an Officer in the Army of America, and then unmarried make a Will and give what property I was then possessed of to my sister Mary, and her to be divided between her and three heirs for ever; and as I do not know where that Will now is, and being since married to Mary Daughter of William Smith of the aforesaid County and having received of said William Smith sundry Negroes, which Negroes I will to be equally divided amongst my wife Mary and the child she is now pregnant with, and my two sons William Smith Hudson - John Erby Hudson and my Daughter Charlotte, besides Hudson together with whatever real Estate that that may be remaining after paying my just debts, and it is my Will and Desire that the real property be sold by my Executors, and I do appoint my wife Mary Bladen, Executor and William Smith Executor of this my last last will and Testament - altho this may not be in due form of Law I hope that it will be allowed and recorded as may be Customary with wills in like cases it being my own hand written and I make all other Wills heretofore made null and void witness my hand I Seal
