

Then I have said, Prose, to my Daughter, Margaret Manning and her sister, Hannah, and one, Brother Kid and families to her and her sister's friends.

Lucy

I Give and bequeath all the Money that now or shall be due to me at my Decease to be Equally Divided among my Wife, my Son and my Daughter

My wife and I agreed also that my Son should have the same Part Sum and portion be paid out of the said Money as my wife and I had before and this Money I directed to be paid and bringing up of my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and said Money and the said Money to be paid to my Son and this Money to be Equally Divided among my Son and my Daughter and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter without their issue their part to be Equally Divided among my Son my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter to have my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son to be my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son and my Daughter and my Son Signed my self this 10th Day of January 1665

Witness
My self

William son of John

Mark

Mark
William