The confession and acknowledgement of his attorney doubtless betwixt him & himself saith that he had it not before for the words he desired that Tompsett said in leaving out the way his plaine Bedford in the caution he had under a runaway for he had never knowne in the way to do you like it thought it unprofitable and had hard to escape. Now he said Tompsett further said if he was a scot. & see longer to live as he had nowt but stay out long longer than the first opportunity he had for his stay of a Court day at night he would god when he thought they were thinkings & stoles a bridle and saddle & tied them in the woods then the first and clothes he had he would waste his opportunity & take one of his masters best horse & he would be gone in the night when the moon was at ye full & the wind bright sayings he should not be called for Bedford bedafull time & perhaps not until night & by that time he would be aboard from another & cry hunting him for he said he would ride all ye first night & next day & next night but he would be aboard other to come back & then he would call & fetch himself & his horse where he would proceed to the Harbor. & there he would set his horse, & then he said Tompsett said he would get a passage in a sloop to New York, & from thence to New England & there he had called light of a shipp he would go for old England if he had all money to pay his passage he would work for it but he would god & god through his works knowing my selfe in a great dree. & being afraid to runnaway this is the truth & nothing but the truth. Henry Clarendon October the first 1679.

if he was a scot. he would not stay two dayes in the Country yo<sup>r</sup> deponent asked him w<sup>ch</sup> way he would gett out of the Country, yo<sup>r</sup> said quodinal had him thoury moneths agoe asked him who answred as safe as may god for he would god the next Court day to ye Court, & he wold right when people wold drinke he wold stalle a saddle & bridle of one of his horses & lay it by way & then yo<sup>r</sup> full opportunity he wold take one of his masters best horse & when yo<sup>r</sup> moon was at ye full or did stand all night he wold be alld all the first night & all ye next day, & next night if his horse shold be he wold take his horse & take another horse by ye way & when he came over Pocomoke River he wold stay & fetch himself & his horse & if it happened he shold be houlden in Annesland in Annesland he wold say he wold take up land at ye Head hill, & if he wold examined there he wold say he came away for all as some of they did after him, & he wold get to New York & see for New England & much difference wold he had w<sup>ch</sup> me & Henry Clarendon after yo<sup>r</sup> carpenters were gone bound

At a Court held in Northampton County the 28th day of July anno 1680.

In the Court of Common Pleas & Chancery at Northampton County, in the State of New Hampshire.

Whereas this Court are informed that in January & February laste lately directed back to some Estates in this County that it was not appearing to them whether his late Sister's Estate or not. It is therefore ye Judgment of this Court & accordingly ordered that that Sheriff forthwith take ye Seal of the said James Vernon deceased into his custody where ye same shall be found this County until further Order from this Court.

Upon the Petition of Elizabeth Willett widow &c. is granted her on the behalf of her deceased husband in the County of Northampton into Court w<sup>t</sup> sufficient Security for Performance of the Laws in such case made & provided.

+ This day Capt. John Whittington by virtue of his Ex. Off. of peace to this County before ye Court of allegiance Supremacy & the Court of Common Pleas or Justice of the Peace & was accordingly admitted & received hereunto.

Ent<sup>r</sup> Capt. John Whittington Whereas Wilmet Gilfard a poor impotent woman was placed by John James by Capt. Whittington who had thereupon entertained her & her since the second of day last. It is therefore ordered by this Court that he shall provide for her until ye next Court of Common Pleas then to be reasonably satisfied for all as this Court shall think fit, & her may justly demandable.

+ The difference depending between Capt. Mathew Willett & Geo. Parker doft. upon ye said doft's alibi his disability of coming this day to Court they therefore think fit to defer ye said doft to morrow then to proceed to Judgment.

Whereas by former Order the difference depending between Lambert Groton as managing ye Estate of Edward Colte Jr. & Gabriele Powell doft was to this Court. And forasmuch as it now appears ye Court very reasonable That ye Queen in difference between ye said parties ought to be returned where it was taken. It is therefore ye Judgment of the Court and accordingly ordered that Gabriele Powell forthwith deliver the Queen in kind to ye said Lambert Groton wife w<sup>t</sup> payment of costs of suits at law.

+ Whereas ye said Gabriele Powell being unsatisfied with the present Judgment of this Court & desirous appeal from ye same to ye 4th day of next Gen<sup>t</sup> Court the same is accordingly granted him, his said party to bring into Court w<sup>t</sup> Security according to Law in such case made & provided + These parties to withdraw from the Court & Edward Colte & wife of Lambert Groton shall hand her hand to the Court as suspended out of ye Jurisdiction of her said late husband which is at ye Court Judgment & accordingly ordered bee apprised by the Court appraisers of ye same as an appendix to ye said Judgment.

One Iron pot, One Gun, one Gun Powder, Three Wedges.

& Peter & Jonathan Fletcher doft. stand still & found him next Court by ye reader of the said p<sup>t</sup>s. abovesigned on the other side of ye Bay.

+ This day Mary doft was presented by the Grand Jury for ye year past for having a Bastard. It is ordered by ye Court that the Sheriff summons her to the next Court to answer to her said present.

+ This day Wilmet Gilfard was presented by ye Grand Jury
for ye year past for having a Bastard. It is ordered by ye Court that the Sheriff summons
her to the next Court to answer to her said present.

+ This day Anne West was presented by ye Grand Jury for ye year past for having a Bastard. It is ordered by ye Court that ye Sheriff summons her to the next Court to answer to her said present.

+ This day ye Grand Jury for ye year past are discharged by ye Court from bringing any longer.

+ It is ordered by the Court that Wm Groton son to an old man by his son upon his Complaint ag<sup>t</sup> his said master be committed into ye Sheriff's custody until ye morrow evening for ye further determination hereof.

+ This day it appeared to ye Court by a manifest trial that the hand of m<sup>r</sup> John Alkinson that according to his former complaint had delivered one cow and yearling & a calf for ye use of others & his calf in his possession which is to ye Judgment of ye Court and accordingly ordered bee paid upon record. It is also ordered he annually give<sup>t</sup> an acre of ye female acreage
