To the Worshippfull the Justices of the peace for the County of Northampton

the Petition of John Cusps High Sheriff

Sheweth that the County is for the present destitute of a prison, he therefore humbly desires your Worshipp to order him one, that he may safely secure such prisoners as shall be committed to his charge for this present year.

The Court to this doth answer

That a prison house is already provided where it ought to be with most convenience, which parts of the Court house, but for want of aaylor the Court hall thought sufficient, that the Justices doe for the present year make provision for the securing of prisoners, and to have allowance paid out of the subsidies.

Upon the petition of Thomas Bagly (who married the Relict of Henry Judd deceased) that the Estate of the pt. Henry Judd might be divided, whereby the pt. Bagly in the Right of his Wife may be possessed of the third of the personal Estate of the Relict of the said Henry Judd, with the appurtenances thereto belonging during the natural life of the Relict's Wife. It is therefore ordered that Leif^t Thomas Judd m^r Elias Hackett & m^r Justice Wytholl be empowered hereby to make an equal division to the best of the Judgment & Conscience of the said Estate of the pt. Henry Judd deceased into three parts & to deliver the one third thereof unto the pt. Bagly, who married the Relict of the pt. Henry Judd, for making her first charge (according to pt & affidavit made in September James Duns. 1664) and the other two thirds to remain in the Administration hands, until the next Court, where a Charge may be taken for the securing of it until the Assizes that in full belong to such use & age, if they are neither of them cannot make it appear that they are of age whereby: And that also the pt. Leif^t Thomas Judd, m^r Elias Hackett, & m^r Justice Wytholl make an equal division of the Land, Tenement & appurtenances thereto belonging, that the pt. Relict of the pt. Judd may take charge of her third of it to enjoy it during her life, and that the Sheriff give notice hereby to the persons appointed to divide the pt. Estate & appoint them a just day to do it in, deliver them a Copy of this order, as also to Summon in to the next Court John Judd, & his Brother Sidney Judd, that there they may make proof of their ages.
