INTERVISED it hath into this Court that John Rand bought a quantity of pounds of William Horryman deceased, with the use thereof upon which Rand was to be fully satisfied according to agreement. And was not accordingly performed by the said Horryman. And whereas it doth further appear by the said depositions that the estate of the said Horryman both out and grant indebted unto the said John Rand for the pounds of Robert and Jane domestic servants of the said Rand.

What a pity - that a man of such talents & industry, should be so long in coming out of the great British Empire in a boat under government, out of the subject service. If it should be done, by the Court, like the case of the Negro, shall have his name, light up on the board as a great thing, in that, upon him, for his service.

WHEREAS it appereth unto this Court that Thomas Parke hath not only abused and perjur'd Mr. Widdowes' Liberty out of his Math. Gome: by the County of Southampton by most cowardly and unjust tricks & stratagems but also went about to riches and in violation of his Math. Gome to run away and shew them out of their Math. Gome. It is therefore thought fit and accordingly ordered by this C^t that if Thomas Parke shall have thirty lashes upon his bare shoulders at a punishment, inflicted upon him for his offences. It also that the C^t Thomas Parke shall remain in the custody of the gaoler untill he shall putt in sufficient security for his good behaviour towards all his friends all his friends people and especially towards Mr.
 Widdowes' Liberty.

Whereas it hath into this Court that the said Peter hath, out-turned, and off Sibley goods, a servant into Supt Phillip Dugles the said twenty days returning by law & equity. It is therefore the order of this Court that the said Peter shall be bound to give bail of the said debt of the said Dugles into the said Supt Phillip Dugles or his assigns the quantity of one hundred & twenty pounds of sterling to be paid the said Peter shall remain in the custody of the said Supt until he shall put in sufficient security for the payment of the said debt of the said Dugles of one hundred & twenty pounds of sterling.
