Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It appears to be a formal or legal document, possibly a deed or a contract, given the mention of "Land" and "Borough". The script is highly stylized and characteristic of the 17th or 18th century.

Agall Wardvix & Co
in the Court of Star Chamber

Sheweth that

Whereas Com: Mathew hath made his humble petition to the said Court that they would be pleased to grant him an order for Charles place and office of Clerk for this County of Middlesex and forasmuch as in October last anno 1647 a petition was there presented and presented & assented unto by the Court & the said Mathew that the County Clerk may be best served person as he is appointed & right by the Court & the Court that in case of Commission should be given of any man who had been in place of the said office that he should be the same should be the like of to confirm in for the County of Middlesex should satisfy in place of the said office the like Annual Satisfaction as the said office was appointed by the Court & the Court should have paid for the said office that the said place is all that was said and the Mathew & Co. in the Court of Star Chamber and the said Mathew hath signified to the Court of Middlesex County that if they think fit to admit the said Com: Mathew into the said office & Charles place he is willing and willing to be appointed that forasmuch as the said office was last possessed of the said office & Charles place who may have paid him the said Com: Mathew the sum of a quantity of one thousand pounds of silver annually for the said office the said Mathew doth promise & hereby obliges himself ready to satisfy to the said Court of Star Chamber or to whom they shall direct to receive the same upon consideration that it is thought fit and ordered that the said Com: Mathew be appointed forasmuch as he possessed the said office & Charles place for this County of Middlesex and the said Court and the said Court demand & receive for the said office the sum of one thousand pounds annually as if it were due to him by virtue of his place & the said Court & the Court appointing him into the said office forasmuch as by any other Clerk Record & Com: Mathew Abound by this deed that Edmund Mathew shall make paying unto William Mathew the sum of four hundred & eighty pounds of lawful due and all costs.

And yet in this day acknowledged in open court by Edmund Mathew for & same a quantity of fifteen hundred and eighty pounds of lawful due for and for the debt of Edmund Mathew by writ for good pay to court charge at cost.

Whereas John Strong was arrested by this court at the suit of the plaintiff for debt due money and for the same or for the right to take bond & for the same for the same they shall not the plaintiff order and the plaintiff shall not the plaintiff before the plaintiff and the plaintiff that the law shall be to satisfy the debt due according to the debt of the plaintiff.

Whereas it appears to the court that the whole estate of John Mathew is the same as the plaintiff's estate of the plaintiff and the plaintiff shall not the plaintiff the plaintiff order and the plaintiff shall not the plaintiff
the plaintiff before the plaintiff and the plaintiff
that the law shall be to satisfy the debt due
according to the debt of the plaintiff.

Whereas Thomas hath been made to be a court and by John Johnson for the plaintiff and the plaintiff
that the law shall be to satisfy the debt due
according to the debt of the plaintiff.

Whereas Robert Winder hath been made to be a
that the law shall be to satisfy the debt due
