Whereas Complt hath been made to this Court by Jno Peirce & Robert Higginson that they have been much abused by Jno Libby their Servt And Disobedient as upon Examinacon of the Matter it appears to this Court that Robert Higginson hath Cruelly beaten & Cruelly Imprisoned from his master Servants by running And reported that his Mrs was a whore And the said Jno hath abused his master in Striking of him & pulled down goods. It is therefore ordered that the said Osborne & Higginson shall as a just merritt of their Offence & further to restrain their natural Stubborn Insolency Lashed & whipped felt & ordered that Jno Libby shall pay the Court charges the said Osborne & Higginson shall Each repay him the Expiracon of their Servitude Each Year.

Whereas it appears to the Court by the deposition of Mr. Peirce and the acknowledgment of Jno Osborne that he the said Osborne hired a Servant into Virginia for the Terme of Seven years and afterwards at her hath purposely run Indebted himself to the King his master whereby he is disenabled to make him Servant by virtue of his Indenture It is therefore the opinion of the Court, that the said Jno Osborne shall

Ordered & Entered in the Court Book Anno 1650 & per Wm Clarke Cler

It is ordered by the Court that an Attachment be granted against the Goods of Sir Robert Lee for the recovery of the Estate of Sir Thomas Lee in Northampton County as shall suffice to be returnable for a debt of Fourteen hundred & odd pounds of Tobacco in the Court charge due by Sir Robert by bond &c.

It is ordered by the Court that Richard Smyth shall be bound with sufficient security unto Sir Nathaniel Littleton & Mr. Edward Hill in the penalty of three hundred pounds of Tobacco at the next Court, to abide such order as the Court shall then make touching the Estate of Mr. George Sherrard deceased which the said Richard Smyth brought with him out of England.

It appeareth to the Court that Mr. George Sherrard brought with him out of England for his own use & benefit a quantity of Tobacco to the value of Eight hundred pounds of Tobacco &c. Whereupon it is ordered that the Executors of the said Mr. George Sherrard shall make payment unto Mr. William Roper for the use of the said Mr. George Sherrard deceased the said Eight hundred pounds of Tobacco &c.

It is ordered by the Court that an Attachment shall forthwith issue out of this Court against the Goods of Mr. Robert Horton as far forth as the Estate of the said Mr. Horton in Northampton County shall amount unto for the recovery of Eight hundred pounds of Tobacco & Court charges due unto Sir Nathaniel Littleton Knight & Baronet as Executor of the last will & Testament of Sir Thomas Lee Knight deceased.

It is ordered by the Court that Mr. Jeffrey Goodrich shall forthwith repair unto Mr. Toby Horton for three hundred Acres of Land due unto him by Patent for eight years from the Harbor the last hereof unto Toby Horton by his own right.

It is ordered by the Court that an Attachment be granted against the Goods of Mr. Stubbery as far forth as the Estate of Robert Sutton & Mr. Stubbery doth amount unto for the recovery of Fourteen hundred pounds of Tobacco & Cask due unto Mr. Robert Sutton by bond &c. Whereupon it is ordered that the Sheriff of Northampton County do forthwith attach the Goods of the said Mr. Stubbery to the value of Fourteen hundred pounds of Tobacco & Cask due unto Mr. Robert Sutton by bond &c. as aforesaid.

It appeareth to the Court that an Attachment hereof formerly granted against the Goods of Mr. Walter Wyatt for the Estate of Mary Robert in Northampton County for the use & benefit of Mr. Robert Sutton & Mr. Stubbery of Accomack as aforesaid is returned executed. Whereupon it is ordered that Judgment shall be entered and Execution granted for the said debt & damages as aforesaid.
