The Depositione since written presented to y^e Commissione the twentieth day of January 1651. on the behalf of Clarae Johnson

This testimony & witnesseth by me and written that whereas Francis Smith (sent to the y^essell shewinge laund a child unto Clarae Johnson of Amsterdam & Godd^d of Court was to provide for the child the above said Francis Smith being in an y^essell came unto Philipp Farrand w^{ch} hee knew. And gave it unto y^e said Farrand in his lapp, tellinge him she would not move but be troubled wth it (to live such a life as shee did; w^{ch} hee told him w^{ch} hee was for it, for shee hath bin troubled enough wth the child; this was then towards night in y^e m^oninge: Clarae Farrand not of age, hand some) spake to Walter Dixone, wife there present, To do so much for him as to take care & charge of it for four or five days in y^e m^oninge how shee would save out a M^oney for it, to keep it altogether, altho she should not be troubled any more. This woman takinge care of it, Clarae went to her bed for a little s^leeper for y^e child, w^{ch} beinge taken in the m^oninge the nurse went home wth y^e child. And Francis Smith not

Her child beinge at the place of the same Clarae Johnson went aboard y^e next daye of shipps In & shipps to buy some sugar & biscatt, but shee while w^{ch} shee was there, that y^e child might not want & be it to y^e nurse for y^e purpose.

and gave to her to go away from slavery; therefore it was more than she could do; when slavery has denied her to take her as she above says; that she should be a man to be in the field (as she now desires) but her would have suffered for it; she still intrudes in a manner to have, & shall, she last clause told her to give this clause. Let her think about, but if y^e will not do it, this shall be a condition that for your sake here would not provide more for y^e child. but she should keep it; upon her own charge; & she will then take her money for y^e child's work; therefore (her answer was) to consider what she would about; therefore if y^e will have it, send by the token if same from aboard y^e ship & bought for y^e child; if holding she will return it to y^e; but slavery not now afterword; no report of y^e should trouble any other look after it or her any further more. These things then passed in the month of December 1681.

It was told about y^e 16. or 17. of May. (Methinks) that when she was a girl, reading news much to her; being her to go first opportunity of wind & weather towards Maryland the first of June. She then came to y^e maine to her former wife y^e first of June not to any other person out of the country. After her time made her satisfaction (or guided a clause for y^e child the slave marriage; & any body should kind? him about his actions in marriage his gift (marriage token) being lower it spoiled; was constrained to sell it with a price to the owner of his trouble & hinderance: Alas! then what to do here; at y^e time clause told Powell of his grievances & asked him fairly to make a full sale & agreed about y^e child. & her might have no fault? trouble in marriage; nor has a good will because agreed to no time to any other person. And now told. Alas! being dangerously sick, more like to die than live, Powell came & began new trouble & gave another of her (in y^e time of his sickness) as if he would not have found a more suitable home.
