The depo: of David Wheatley taken 7th of November 1651

Sitteth that Wm Jackson came into the Court of Chancery in the Court of Chancery, by reason there was some business brought him & his wife; the reason of this business was, that she was very loath to let him go home, because of his wife, Wm Jackson made answer (if she would not) ~ that would be in some one house, for home that would not go for force he should do her some mischief because (said her) she did abuse me as for her house. Upon the consideration David Wheatley, his wife & any daughter bring then there; she let him be there; in the night his wife came & said in the Court of Chancery, in fact: my husband left me some money to him David Wheatley made answer that it was not his, to wit: in the Court of Chancery, left her in, and when she came in she promised me & said that in the Court of Chancery suborned her husband in her father's house; but it was no such matter. God knows ~ such a cheat: she desired Wm Jackson & his wife to depart her house and away they went containing her to base & evil.

This day in Court Andrew made his
