By the C<sup>ld</sup>: & Comander of Northampton County

Iurray I am credibly informed, & after Complaint hath been made unto mee, that some persons in this County whom it hath pleased God to visit with that dangerous & spreading disease named the Small Pox, & for want of better judgment & Christian civility, have suffered such of their families to wander forth amongst such people as are cleave from the same, without any the least restriction & forasmuch as the sd. disease is not onely very dangerous to those persons so visited, if they be exposed to the air, but also as dangerous & infectious unto all other such cleave persons, as they so infected shall presume to come amongst untill they be fully cured & cleansed, for prevention of the like unchristian behavior for the future, Those whom this att<sup>est</sup> present may concerne, & all other Inhabitants, that it may, or shall please God to visit in this County, are hereby advised & admonished, as also strictly charged, & commanded to exercise such restrictions over their sd. families respectively in case of such visitation according to the laws of God & Man & suitable to the rule & Govern<sup>t</sup> of Christianity, & that they suffer none of their sd. families so visited to go forth their doors, untill their full cleavage (that is to say) thirtie dayes after their recovery of their sd. Small Pox, least the sd. disease should spreade by infection like the plague of Leprosy throughout this County, & such as shall not take notice of this Ex<sup>em</sup>onition, & charge, but beastlike shall presume to Act & do contrarily, may expect to be severely punished according to the Statute of the first of King James in such Cases provided for their contempt herein.
