I have writt y^e Letter as willingly (as a right full heart can express) to my dear Kneer taken, for y^e sh^d I give her kinde thanks for y^e same; And this is to let y^e know that my w^{ch} is sent at Plymouth, but at a very low rate for I had as much in London for my w^{ch} as I had there for love; but now it cannot be bought & so we must be content, for y^e boat is so very dangerous, we could not get it about to London, but hadading or looking all; & I hope this w^{ch} I shall receive my money for y^e at last. And I w^{ch} the twenty shillings, of George Merril, & I hope I shall have from y^e one more by Merril, & y^e with all the which I shall stay in London for y^e shippes fall down to Graves End only days; But yet I may be in England this month or more; But w^{ch} ing out to y^e other, will be one return of y^e service. But when I come to Virginia & God bless me w^{ch} life & health, I shall not forget in writing to y^e. The little estate y^e Lord hath the y^e will in y^e is most on it in matter; & both; w^{ch} y^e w^{ch} & some Hogg; But if I should do any other waye than w^{ch} y^e must write to James Gond & give him order to sell this good & turn them into Tobacco ff^{or} he cannot in one year, yett safe for all; therefore y^e must write unto him, & he will advise y^e for y^e best; But y^e must satisfy him in some measure. And then he will not neglect, to be sure for he is a very honest man & one y^e maye trust. Dear brother before y^e write to James Gond to sell any thing; write to him what he is & what to do; & how he should advise y^e for y^e best & then, when y^e have his answer; y^e will y^e better know what to do in it; for I give y^e but this instructions, that y^e best of any thinge maye be made of y^e w^{ch} I take (if I should see single) that y^e should have it all And I leave this (if I should see all sea) and not be taken, that y^e should have y^e little I take with me to sea; And if please God this should happen y^e must write to me; him; to whom in England he shall assign it on to for y^e use, and if please God that this be; Hope on Deane (Mother) & on good sisters and brothers (if there be any others) for I give y^e it to this intent And I doubt not but y^e will performe it if such a thinge should happen. The sea is so uncertaine that I dare not venture to take my sister Dorothy over so the sea; But I would not have y^e think it is for want of good will; for I want to god it is not none of y^e all that is not wanting; But shall do for any of y^e the assistance of my power. I w^{ch} that since y^e last Letter, I have been a sufferer since the Dec^r & the Apothicary hath had of me six & six; But thank be unto God, I am well recovered And so to my love to my Brother Edmund
