I give and bequeath to my Son Addison Nottingham my Negro Man Watt and my Negro Woman Peg the Mare that is commonly called he, and my best Saddle and Cloth & Bridle, my Gun, half my wearing Apparel, and one red Chest, commonly called he, my Book Duesling Court upon Death to him and his Heirs forever.

I give and bequeath unto my Daughter Mary Nottingham my Negro Woman Grace & my Negro Boy Opp, her Side Saddle, and Bridle, and Saddle Cloth and my large red Mare, half a Dozen of Silver Spoons, marked A N and one Pair of Silver Tea Tongs marked A N B and one white Pine Chest to her and her Heirs forever.

I give to my Daughter Esther Nottingham, my Negro Man Jerom my Negro Girl Jude, and the Mare that is called mine, half a Dozen ^{Silver} Tea Spoons & Tongs, marked B P two Gold Rings, and a pair of Gold Sleeve Buttons, marked Bot Gall her Mothers wearing Apparel that I have not before given away, and one large Blue pine Chest, and fifteen Pounds in Cash her part of John Parvalls Estate to her and her Heirs forever. But if in Case either of my three last mentioned Children dye before they come to Age or many that in that Case the part of the dec^d shall go to the Survivor, or Survivor, to them, and their Heirs forever.

I give and bequeath unto my Grand Daughter Peggy Dexam ten Pounds in Cash to her and her Heirs forever. I give and bequeath unto my Grand Daughter ^{Harrah} Dexam ten Pounds in Cash to her and her Heirs forever.

And my Will and desire is that the aforesaid Money may continue in the hands of my Executor; and that he shall put out the Money at Interest for them, untill they come of Age to receive it, But if in Case either of them ^{shall} dye before they come to Age, or many that then the other surviving shall enjoy the whole. But provided they both shall dye before they arrive at the above mentioned State: that then in that Case the Money shall be equally divided amongst my four Children & their heirs forever.

My Will and desire is that, all the rest of my Estate, not before mentioned, may be sold, and the Money thence arising, equally divided amongst my three Children Addison Mary and Esther (after my just Debts are paid) to them and their Heirs forever.

I leave my three Children to the Care of my Son William. My desire is that their Negroes may not be hired to Tavern Keepers, or other bad Masters, but that they may be hired publicly or privately as my Son shall see proper.

I appoint my Son William Nottingham Executor of this my last Will & Testament.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this eighth Day of January Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and Seventy three

Signed, sealed, and delivered in Presence of
