In the name of God Amen I Adial Milby of Northampton County & Colony of Virginia, being Sick & indisposed, but in my perfect Sense and understanding, calling to mind the uncertainty of Life, and the absolute certainty of Death, in order the Disposal and due Settlement of my affairs, in case it should please God to call me out of this world. I make and ordain this last Will and Testament in manner and form following. Imprimis. I commit my Soul to Almighty God hoping & firmly expecting mercy at his hands at the final Day, when all Mens merits shall be tried and rewarded, and as for what Worldly Estate it has pleased God to bestow on me, I give and dispose the same in the following manner. Item. I give the Plantation whereon I now live, and one half of the Mill thereto belonging, to my loving Wife Elizabeth Milby in lieu of her Dower during her Widowhood.

 But if she should marry again, my will and desire is, that this Plantation and the said half of the Mill, shall then immediately go to my Son John Milby as directed by my Fathers will. And if my said loving Wife shall stand to this my Will, and not renounce the same, then my desire is, that the Plantation whereon I formerly lived which I purchased of Maddop Turner joining Edmund Johnson and Nathaniel Bell shall be rented out for the Term of Eight years, the money to be paid at the Expiration of the Term, or as my Executors may think best. To be applied toward discharging my sister Rosys portion, at her coming of Age, or Marriage.
 But in case my Sister should Die before either of the said Contingencies, then the said money arising from the said Lease to be equally Divided between my Son John Milby, and my daughter Sally Milby. But in case my loving Wife should not think proper to stand to and abide by my Will, then my desire is, that the said Plantation should not be rented out, but that my said Wife shall take her Dower thereon, and the other two thirds thereof, together with the Profits of this Plantation I now live on to be applied towards my son Johns maintenance and Education till he arrives at Age. Item. Whereas my father Gilbert Milby has Intailed the Plantation whereon I now live on my son John, and whereas it may happen that my said Son, in case my loving Wife should stand to this my Will, and take this Plantation in lieu of her Dower in the other Plantation I formerly lived on, may disturb ^{her} in the possession thereof, to restrain him therefrom, my will and desire is that if ever my said son John does disturb my ^{said} wife Elizabeth in the possession of this Plantation I now live on, during her Widowhood, then and in that case, I give and bequeath the said Plantation I formerly lived on, away from my said son John, and his Heirs to my daughter Sally, and her Heirs forever. But if my Son John should Die without Issue, then my will is son John, and whereas it may happen that my said Son, in case my loving Wife should stand to this my Will, and take this Plantation in lieu of her Dower in the other Plantation I formerly lived on, may disturb ^{her} the possession thereof, to restrain him therefrom. My will and desire is that if ever my said son John does disturb my ^{and} wife Elizabeth in the possession of this Plantation I now live on, during her Widowhood, then and in that case, I give and bequeath the said Plantation I formerly lived on, away from my said son John, and his Heirs to my daughter Sally, and her Heirs forever. But if my Son John should die without Issue, then my will and desire is that the said Plantation I formerly lived on, should ^{then} go to my Sister Rosy, and her heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath to my loving wife Elizabeth the following Slaves during her Widowhood to wit, Joshua, Miles, Abel, Nanny, Bridget, Candor, Phillis and Isaac; but if she should marry again, then to be Equally divided between my Son and Daughter, and their Heirs.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sally, and her Issue of her body, the following Slaves to wit, ^{Daniel} Aaron, Abigail, Shadrach, Matthew, Diana, and Dinah, to be delivered her at her Marriage, or when she shall arrive at lawful age. But if she should die without Issue, then I give the said Slaves to said Son and the Issue of his Body forever. But if my Son and Daughter should both die without Issue, then I give and bequeath all the Slaves aforesaid, as well those given to my Wife during her widowhood, as those given to my Daughter to be equally divided between my Wife and Sister, and their heirs forever, provided my said Wife abides by and stands to, and does not renounce this my Will. But in case she does not stand to my will, then I give all the Slaves aforesaid to my Sister & her Heirs forever.

Item. I give to my Sister ~~and her heirs forever~~ the Issue of her Body, the following Slaves to wit, Caleb and Pegg. And if she should die without Issue, then to my son John and his Issue, and if he should die without Issue, then to my Daughter Sally and the Issue of her Body. And if she should likewise die, without Issue, then I give them to John Pitts and Sally Pitts, and their Heirs forever, equally to be divided.

Item. My will and desire is that my loving Wife shall have the Profits of all the Slaves, given my Daughter Sally, to her my said Wife, during her Widowhood, and Sister, and their heirs forever, provided my said Wife abides by and stands to, and does not renounce this my Will. But in Case she does not stand to my will, then I give all the Slaves aforesaid to my Sister & her heirs forever.

Item. I give to my Sister and ~~her heirs forever~~ the Issue of her Body, the following Slaves to Wit, Caleb and Pegg. And if she should die without Issue, then to my son John and his Issue, and if he should die without Issue, then to my Daughter Sally and the Issue of her Body. And if she should likewise die, without Issue, then I give them to John Pitts and Sally Pitts, and their heirs forever, equally to be divided.

Item. My will and desire is that my loving Wife shall have the Profits of all the Slaves, given my Daughter Sally, to her my said Wife, during her Widowhood, and no longer, to bring up, maintain and Educate my said Daughter. And, in Case my said Wife should marry again, then my will and desire is, that my friend Torababel (Downing) do undertake the Education of my said Daughter, and I hereby appoint and constitute him the said Downing Guardian of my said Daughter immediately on my said Wifes marriage, and that he do apply a reasonable part of the Profits of her Estate towards maintaining, and bringing her up. And the residue, if any there shall be, to be laid out at Interest for her use and benefit.

Item. My will and desire further is that my Son John shall continue with my said Wife also during her Widowhood, and no longer to be maintained and libually Educated out of the Profits of the Estate, but in Case my Wife shall marry again, then and immediately thereupon, I appoint my two good friends the Reverend Mr. Richard Hewett, and the Reverend Mr. Isaac Avery Guardians of my said Son to be libually Educated and maintained out of the Profits of his own Estate untill he arrives, at lawful Age. And if any residue should be over and above what may be sufficient for his maintainance and Education, the same to be laid out at Interest for his benefit and Advantage.
