In Obedience to an order of Court bearing date the 10th day of April Anno Domini 1781.
 We the subscribers have met, in obedience to said order, together with all parties concerned, at the house of M^r Henry Guy in order to Adjust the Accounts of John Guy, dec^d. And after examining the said Accounts so far as offered to us by the parties finding it almost a matter out of dispute to come at the true state of the Case; all parties concerned being of lawful age and then present agreed with one consent to commit all accounts then about to be settled by us to the fire, which was accordingly done being the only speedy way of adjusting the same. and said parties desired us to report the same to the Court as being a proper acquittance to each party concerned in the settlement of said John Gays Estate to this day. The parties agreeing from this day that if any accounts due to or from the said Estate more than what is already come to their knowledge and settled for, that they will pay and receive agreeable to a former Contract made for that purpose. As Witnesses our hands
