In the name of God, Amen. I William Waterfield, being of perfect mind and memory, do make this my last Will and Testament.

I Imprimis. I leave my land whereon I now live to be sold for the payment of my debts, except one acre adjoining the lot of Robert Harrison, which I leave to my brother John Waterfield and his Heirs and Assigns forever.

2ly. I leave my loving wife one hundred pounds to build her a house, on the Land whereon my Mother lives.

3dly. I leave my Land whereon my mother lives, and all the rest of my estate whatever, to my wife untill my son arrives to the age of twenty one years, for the purpose of bringing up and educating my children; and after that period to be equally divided between my said Wife and my two children; but in case my wife should die before my said son shall arrive to the age of twenty one years, then my desire is that my said Estate should be equally divided between my two children as aforesaid.

Lastly. I do appoint my brother-in-law Thomas Hunt my executor of this my last Will and Testament.

I do hereby acknowledge and Publish this to be my last Will and Testament:

Witness my hand and Seal this third day of December, in the year of our Lord 1787.
