Ex. William Smith Esq

Dear Sir—

Accomack 26 February 1774—

I shall be detained here a day or two on business, which I have wrote Mrs Taylor, but have concealed from her the very bad state of my health which I find much worse than ever—My fever has greatly abated, but I am seized with a very great pain and soreness in my Breast occasioned, I fear, by the harsh antimonial vomit the Doctor gave me which by the violence of its operation may have bruised my Lungs &c. I can scarce walk and am doubtful that I cannot hold out to ride any considerable Distance but shall set out for Northampton tomorrow or on Monday if able. In the mean time lest I should never again have the happiness to see my dear Wife, I desire this may be taken as my last will & Testament, wherein I give her all my Estate after my debts are paid as I imagine there may be something worth her acceptance, and there is no person in the world I so tenderly love, and who I think more worthy than herself. I beg the favour of you and my friends Isaac Smith and Thos. Good Smith to undertake the execution of this my last will and Testament and do hereby constitute & appoint you and them Executors of the same.

I am dear Sir your obedient Servant

James Taylor LS

In the name of God amen. I Michael Christain of the County of Northampton being of perfect mind & memory do make this my last will & Testament. to wit, I give and bequeath unto my Daughter Margaret all the land of my upper plantation that lies to the west of the main road during her life and after her death to the heirs of my said Daughter

Margaret, by her present Husband William Jenne, in fee simple, provides that the said Jenne pay into my estate the sum of one thousand pounds for the use of my Daughter Anne Hays; And if my said Daughter Margaret should die without such heirs, then my will is that the aforesaid Land shall revert to the right Heirs of my said Daughter Margaret for ever. I then give and bequeath unto my Daughter Susannah the northernmost half of my plantation whereon I now live to her during her life and after her death to the heirs of my said Daughter Susannah, by her present Husband Ellison Armistead, in fee simple, provided that the said Armistead pays into my Estate the sum of twelve hundred & fifty pounds, for the use of my said daughter Anne Hays, and for want of such heirs the aforesaid land to revert to the right heirs of my said Daughter Susannah forever. My will is that the line to be drawn to divide the aforesaid land, shall be drawn as near parallel to the road that leads down to the ferry as possible, & so as to make an equal number of acres on each side & my daughter Susannah to have the half whereon I now live I then give and bequeath unto my Daughter Esther the other half of my last mentioned plantation during her life & after her death to the heirs of my said Daughter Esther by her present husband John Darby in fee simple provided the said Darby pays into my estate the sum of two hundred & fifty pounds for the use of my Daughter Rose, and for want of such heirs the aforesaid land to revert to the right heirs of my said Daughter Esther forever. I then give and bequeath unto my Daughter Rose & her heirs forever, all the land of my before mentioned ^{upper} plantation that lies to the eastward of the main road & Hungars Creek: I then give & bequeath the before mentioned sums of money, to be paid by the aforesaid Jenne & Armistead to my Daughter Anne Hays. And the aforesaid sum to be paid by the aforesaid Darby I give to my Daughter Rose. — As it may be inconvenient for my aforesaid sons in law to pay the aforesaid sums immediately, my will & Desire is that the sums to be paid to my Daughter Anne shall be paid in five equal payments, within five years to commence from the day of my death & to be upon interest untill paid. And the sum to be paid by my son in law John Darby, to my daughter Rose to be paid in the same manner & time. When my daughter Margaret was married I gave her five hundred pounds, & as the said sum is not made up to the rest, my will and desire is that five hundred pounds should be made up to each of them out of my they Estate, deducting what sums have already received. I do appoint my sons in law John Darby & Smith Sinead my Executors of this my last will & Testament
