Ex^o Thomas Lytt: Savage C. N. C.

In the name of God amen, I, John Lewis Fulwell, being at present thanks be to God, in perfect health and of sound body and memory, do this instrument of writing constitute and appoint to be my last will and Testament, hereby and herewith revoking all other Will or Wills, Testament or Testaments, and every other instrument or piece of writing heretofore made, or signed by me, and declare them to be null and void, and of no consequence or effect.

Inprimis, my will and desire is that my body after my decease may be kept above ground for three full days and afterwards, should ^{by God's will} I happen to die in this County, to be buried in the piece of ground behind the vineyard, on the right hand opposit my brother, leaving ^{the} immediate room for my wife and children, in case they die in this place. and my desire is that a Tomb stone may be purchased and put on my grave with the inclosed inscription, that my children and posterity if it pleases god to bless them may know from whence they descended.

1. buried

2. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Margaret Tulewell eight hundred acres of Land lying and being in the county of Gloucester and which purchased of Franc Willis Junr. and another part of Franc Whiting Junr. being contiguous and going by the name of Cheesman's swamp with a negro Teller a negro Woman, a negro Boy and a girl which I will her to chuse for herself, out of the whole Negro during her natural life. and further my will is that she shall stay and live with my son Victor Augustus Tulewell on the Plantation which I purchased of Churchill Armistead, now Matthew's County during her life, but in case she should like to live separate and on the land left her, that my son George Tulewell and Victor Augustus, shall jointly contribute to build a small framed house 26 feet by 10 with a half passage at one end ten feet broad and eight feet long that cut off part of the passage of ten remaining feet to be made a bed chambers.

3. I give

3. I give and bequeath unto my son George Lewis Tulewell the plantation now live on in this country called Pop's Cappel likewise the houses and lots at Bridgetown, purchased the one of Peter Parker and at present occupied by Major Brickhouse, and the other purchased of Mr. Stuart and wife, occupied by John Ewing Llewellyn's son's Island which I purchased of John Floyd, son of Major John Floyd all and every one with the several and singular the appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto to him and his heirs forever.

4.th I give and bequeath unto my son Victor Augustus Tulewell the plantation called Oldendorp lying and being in Mathews County on East river, which I purchased of Churchill Armistead and formerly went by the name of old Town together with all the singular the appurtenances thereto belonging or in any wise appertain-ing to him and his heirs forever reserving to my beloved wife Margaret Tulewell the living with him thereon; and that she shall be supplied by him with every article towards her comfortable support and maintenance in all and every respects as she was supported and maintained during my life; I likewise bequeath and give unto him all my Medicines, and the whole equipage belongg. to the shop, with all and every Book relating to Physic, surgery, Chymistry, Midwifery; Likewise all my Instruments of what denomination soever to him and his heirs forever; and further my will and desire is, in case George L. Tulewell should want a few articles of Medicine for

for himself and family it is my will and desire that he may be supplied with those necessary articles, towards preserving his and his family health, as his knowledge reaches, out of the medicine in my shop according to the quantity remaining from one ounce if so much to a lesser quantity according as they may occur to be ministered in sicknesses and his judgment can make use of.

5.th I give and bequeath unto my Daughter Peggy Emilia Lane seven hundred acres of Land I bought of Franc^e Willis Junr, & Franc^e Whiting Junr called Schaumburg, but formerly denominated Cheepman's Swamp all and singular the appurtenances thereunto belonging during her natural life, and after her decease to my Grand son Lewis William Lane, by the said Peggy Emilia to him and his heirs, but my will is that in case the said Lewis William Lane should die before he comes of mature age, then the Land given to him is to return again to my heirs to wit, George Lewis Fulwell and Victor Augustus Fulwell To be equally by them divided, or their survivors and to go and possess it in like manner as their former inheritance given to them.

6.th The remaining seven hundred acres of Land be the same more or less I give and bequeath unto my son George Lewis Fulwell with all and singular the appurtenances thereunto in any wise appertaining to him and his heirs forever. But in case my/

My outstanding debts be not sufficient to pay my debts, then my will and desire is that as much thereof may be sold, as with the outstanding debts will be sufficient.

7th My will and desire is that altho' I have given eight hundred acres to my beloved wife during her life & Peggy India Lane seven hundred, of the land called Cheesman's swamp formerly but now by me is called Schaumburg that after the decease of the said Margaret Fulwell my beloved wife, the whole tract of land may be divided equally in two halves laying it off so that the benefit of the water may be preserved in each if possible.

8th My will and desire is that the rest of my Negroes not given away already shall be equally divided between my children and the choice to be according to seniority of my sons and daughter and the holding of them to be similar to the lands.

9th I give and bequeath my carriage with the Horse - Wilson and mare Walker to my beloved wife Margaret Fulwell, during her life, and afterwards the carriage and horse and mare to go to my son George Lewis Fulwell.

10th All the rest of my stock of what denomination soever I will, and desire, that it may be equally divided, between my beloved wife and children.

11th All my books not given away before, my will and desire is that they may be equally divided, with the rest of all my household and kitchen furniture, corn meat and other grain, and every other article not willed away hitherto
