In the Name of God Amen. I Esther Harrnanson of the County of Northampton and State of Virginia being at present — indisposed but ~~of~~ sound mind and memory and not knowing when it may please ^{Almighty} God to Call me out of this world, think it necessary to make and to constitute this to be my last will and Testament, recommending my soul to almighty God who gave it.

I therefore I do give and bequeath unto my loving Brother, Matthew Harrnanson, Peggy, and Lucy, — Harrnanson my loving sisters, the whole of my landed Estate, given to me by my Grand Father John Respass, to be equally divided between them three, to them and their Heirs forever.

Item I do give and bequeath unto my loving Niece Lucretia Respass the sum of fifty pounds Cash.

Item I do give and bequeath unto my loving sister Betsy Wilkins my Riding Chair and Harness.

Item I do give and bequeath unto my Honored — and loving Father Henry Harrnanson my riding Horn Stair.

Item I do give and bequeath unto the ^{P.} Henry Harrnanson

I Hannanson my Honored Father Eighteen Pounds Cash. to buy him a Sulky.

Item I do give and bequeath unto my loving Sister Lucy my dressing Table and Glass.

Item I do give and bequeath unto my Cousin Victor Augustus Fulwell, a Suit of Mourning.

Item I do give and bequeath unto my loving brothers Matthew and Patrick Hannanson all the remainder or remaining part of my Estate not given and bequeathed hitherto, be it of what kind soever.

Item I do Appoint my Loving and much Honored Father Henry Hannanson to be my sole and only Executor to this my Last will and Testament, ~~and~~ henceforth and hereby revoking all former wills and Testaments by me in any wise hitherto made and Executed Declaring them hereby and henceforth to be utterly null and void, and of no consequence,

In the name of God amen, I William Kendall Senr of Northampton County and State Virginia being sound both in body and mind, first my soul to god, through Christ and as to my worldly possessions, I desire that they may go as in manner following.

Six hundred and Ten acres of Land upon Cherry stones as surveyed by Mr. John Harmanson Senr. now supposing the said number of Acres to be complete, but if less then the several Dividends hereafter mentioned must look in Proportion to their quantities.

I therefore Order and Direct that three hundred acres of Land, fronting the river so as including the Dwelling House yard Garden, & the adjacent fruit trees, to be laid off by lines running Eastwardly & Westwardly, through the middle and most beautiful part of my said Plantation be allotted for my son Gustus Kendall, and to his Lawful Issue living, as shall be more fully described in a future clause of this will.

for my son Thomas Peeson Kendall and to defend to him, and to his lawful Issue living, as shall be more fully expressed hereafter.

Item, one hundred acres running as before directed, and lying to the southward of Custer's, as intended for my son William Kendall, and to his lawful Issue living, but if Mr. Kendall, should at her Death, give her said Plantation on Nagsvadox, to my said son William, then this said hundred acres, must be added to Custer's Division, which would make him, up in that case, four hundred Acres, but to be more fully expressed in a future clause. Item, the last Ten Acres, still lying to the southward of the above hundred acres, I ~~mean~~ mean as a lot, which, I suppose may fall somewhere about little Neck, to be equally divided, between my two daughters Sarah Cable Brown Kendall, and Ann Lefshew Kendall, and to their lawful Issue living, as I shall more fully explain hereafter, and that my said Daughter, Sarah, as ~~was~~ aforesaid, shall live after the decease of Mr. Kendall, with my son Custer Kendall, and be always kindly and affectionately, treated by him, and his family, during her Virgin State, or in a state of widowhood, if she should chuse, but not to reside with him in a state of Coverture, and my Daughter, Ann Lefshew Kendall, must live with my son Thomas Peeson Kendall, in the same manner, as I have have expressed, my Daughter Sarah, residing with my son Custus, after the Decese of Mrs Kendall,) here I am supposing that Mrs Kendall, will not marry after my decese because no second Husband shall have any power over my Children, or their Estates, any more than what the law will allow.

Item, provided Mrs Kendall, during her state of widowhood will keep all my Children together and bring them up, and educate them in the best manner she can afford, Here I do not mean to include my son Custus, because He is already of lawful age, unless his mother, should chuse to let him reside with her, but I am considering those that are under age, that in such case she may tend, or occupy as much of my Plantation as she pleases not to exceed ~~ten~~ ^{four} hands; supposing them, to consist of Fellows, Wenches, Boys, or Girls, and to commit no wast of Timber, she may also build or make any repairs she pleases, at her little Plantation on Nefuadox, from Timber taken off Chumstones also taking care to commit no Waste, and that Mrs Kendall, During the state of such widowhood, and while she has the care and Charge, of my younger Children, she shall not be discommoded in my Dwelling House, or other out Houses, Yard, Gardens, Fruittrees, &c — Item, in order that Mrs Kendall's life, may be rendered as happy as her state of widowhood can admit, I think it, my part now; in return for her goodness, who has ever made me, one of the best of wives, to guard against every thing that might tend to make her otherwise; Therefore if my Children should prove undutiful, (for there is generally no accounting for their conduct, or disaffection to an aged Parent

31st Parent when they think they have it in their power,) this I hope nothing of this sort may happen; yet it should, --- there shall no Divisional lines be run, so long as she --- remains my Widow, but if she marries, then to take --- place immediately, and that the Timbered Land, may be considered in each division, as it may happen, and also that the usual watering place, at Ten pound Branch, be common to all, by being made as convenient as possible.
Item, as this clause is the winding up of my sentiments respecting my Landed property, I hope the most favorable construction will be put upon ~~my~~ my words and intention, Therefore, each of the Dividends, and lots, as aforesaid, shall and may be held and possessed, by each of my Children respectively, or their lawful issue --- living, (as being now more particularly expressed,) --- but in case either of my Said Sons, or Daughters, --- shall sell the whole, or any part thereof, or grant a Lease, for a certain number of years; or give a --- Mortgage, on the whole, or any part thereof, in such case that Dividend or lot shall be forfeited, and be equally divided, amongst all the other of my Children, (if they should be living) or to their --- lawful Issue, in case of such Parents Death, --- Provided they will hold the same, and so on to their lawful Issue so long as there is a child, or grand ---

Grand Child to represent me, or where any of my Children may Die without lawful Issue living, or Die without leaving such Issue, at the time of their Death, in either case, ^{let} the survivor, or survivors, Inherit such part provided they hold the same conditionally, not to sell, Lease for a certain term, or mortgage as aforesaid, and where all my Children, and their Issue may become extinct, Then to my wife Nancy Kendall, and to her heirs forever,

Item when my son William Kendall, arrives to the age of seventeen, or eighteen years old, if Mrs Kendall should then be living, I hope she will endeavour, to get him into a Store, under the care of some worthy Gentleman Merchant (in Northampton) and there continue him, untill he arrives to the age of Twenty one years, she furnishing him with necessary cloths, and a little pocket money.

Item, pay my just debts, and funeral rites, then all Remainder of my Personal Estate, Stock, and all other things, (except some legacies which I shall hereafter mention) equally divided amongst all my Children, to them and their Heirs forever.

Item, if Mrs Kendall should marry, then my Personal Estate, shall be immediately divided amongst all all my Children in the following manner, — whereas I have already given Custis, a negro lad, by the name of Nat, my other Children, to wit; Thomas, Sarah, William, and Ann, — must each of them also have a young negro allotted them, before a general division, takes place, — therefore Abel, to my son Thomas, Grace, to my Daughter, Sarah, Spencer, to my son William, and some other young negro, to my Daughter Ann, then let an equal Division come on as aforesaid.

Item Legacies are as follows, which I shall consider — under this sentence, Two Dinning Tables to Mrs. Kendall.

all my China ware to ditto, (except) my largest punch Bowl, to Custis, second one to Thomas, my black walnut Chest to Thomas, Still, and its furniture, two salt — kettles, best hand mill, and spice mortar and its — pebble, these last mentioned articles, I give to Custis & my Book Case.

Item I appoint Mrs. Kendall, so long as she remains my widow, my Executrix, expecting ^{that} my two eldest sons, — without their qualifying, will be ready at all times, to give her any assistance, In Testimony, whereof I do now revoke, all former Wills, Declaring this to be my last will and Testament, bearing date, this Eleventh day of September, one thousand seven hundred Ninety four.

Also, a negro man David, all to them during their lives and at the death of the said, Richard and Elizabeth Evans, to their children, namely Polly, and Betsey, and Peter Evans, Item, I give my Daughter Sally Boyd, 1 Square walnut Table, and Looking glass, also, six pounds of this year, rent by Mr. Carpenter.

Item, I give to Thomas Burgess, 1 Bed and furniture, Item, All the remainder part of my Estate, I give to my said Daughter, Sally Boyd, after paying my just debts.

Item, I Leave my Daughter Sally Boyd my Execution to this my last will, Dated this 29th day November 1793-

Signed and acknowledged, } Tabitha ^{her} + Biggs ^{mark.} in presence of.....

Edm^d. G. Hubbard

William Carpenter

At a Court held for Northampton County, the 14th apt. 1795

This will was proved by the oath of Edmund G. Hubbard, a witness thereto, and ordered to be recorded, Sally Boyd, the Executrix therein appointed having refused to act,
