The nuncupative will of Ann Westerhouse Sarah Gladson and William Stoll both of Lawful age make oath on the Holy Evangelists that Ann Westerhouse in her last sickness, to wit, on 6th day of January in this present year desired these Deponents to take notice and inform her the said Ann Westerhouse son Wm Andrews that she the said Ann Westerhouse desired that he the said William Andrews should have all her Estate and property except the Clothes herein after mentioned, and that the said Ann Westerhouse told these Deponents at the same time that this and what she said about the Clothes was her Will or words to that amount, the Deponents further say that the said Ann Westerhouse at the time aforesaid and in the manner aforesaid gave to her granddaughter Nancy

I Thomas Drysdale, of Baltimore town in the State of Maryland, but now in Northampton County in the State of Virginia, do this day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven make this my last will and testament in the manner and form following. I give and bequeath to my wife Mary Ann and under such restrictions, as will be hereafter specified.

I nominate and appoint as the Executor of my will ^{Mr} ~~the~~ Weatherburn, my present attorney in Baltimore town aforesaid, and requests a continuance of his friendship in not only seeing the spirit of my will put into execution, but in superintending also its right direction as attorney hereafter. In memory of his kindness I request his annual acceptance of a superfine cloth coat to be paid for out of the product of my Estate, so long as he retains the management of it. — It is my will & command, that all my Real Estate be sold as soon as possible; and if this cannot be achieved at present, that the ^{same} be never relinquished but be executed, when an opportunity may offer. Let the money arising from the sales be invested in the safest and most lucrative funds, whence the ^{interest} arising from the principal may be regularly drawn. I strictly forbid the principal to be broken in upon but that it be always preserved intact — being of opinion that the amount of interest from the money thus invested, or of the Rents as my property now lies — will be fully sufficient to support my widow in a handsome stile. One exception I intend to make on this head — viz. If I have by my wife Mary Ann — a Son I wish his education to be of the gentlest and most useful kind — (avoiding the study of the Dead Languages) Should there not be a sufficiency to appropriate appropriate out of the more Interest, to execute this wish then and in that case only let so much of the capital be used and expended as will complete his education all my personal property in Northampton County except such articles as my wife may wish to reserve, I direct and give to be sold; as after my death, she will not continue at house keeping, but live more comfortably and conformably to her situation, by boarding and lodging in some honorable private Family. I Give and bequeath all my real Estate to my wife Mary Ann, during the whole term of her widowhood after my death.

 Should she not marry again, I give and bequeath the same to her during her natural Life. If I leave behind me after my death Issue of her Body, to such Child, I Give and bequeath all my real estate free from all restrictions, - after the expiration of the natural life of my wife; and after the expiration of her widowhood Should she marry again, I will that the two thirds of Interest in Rents be preserved for the use or expenditure so far as is necessary in the education, of such Child Should there be more than one Child, in such case let an equal division be made between them, instead of pursuing the meaning of the foregoing part of this clause.
 If my heir live to the age of twenty one years, then he may dispose of his property by will as he may think think proper. But should my heir die before he attain that age, I dispose of the principal of my Estate in the manner hereafter expressed. —

Should I have no child to receive the reversion of my Estate after my wife's death, or should such child have died at an early age, or during the widowhood of my wife Mary Ann, then and in such case I give and bequeath the Interest or Parts of my property to my wife during her natural life. — I conceive my Estate sufficient to support my widow gently, and nothing further a division therefore can not be made in it by legacies to different relations, especially my mother who ought to look more justly to her wealthy and friendly brothers, one of whom particularly insists on her making his house her home. If I could I would make her independent thro' life. — But she will be as well provided for.
If my wife marries without such ties as hitherto expressed, then, I bequeath two thirds of her annual income as hitherto advised, unto Margaret Armstrong — my mother, during her natural life, or otherwise so long as she may remain in her present state of widowhood. —

If my Mother, Margaret aforesaid survive my wife Mary Ann, who may have died with out the heir already described, I give and bequeath all to said Mother in such case, the income thereof to be enjoyed by my wife, to have during her natural life - or only during her widowhood as above named. Lastly, should I leave no child by my wife Mary Ann, or should such child die before the age of twenty one, I give and bequeath after the death of my wife ~~and mother~~ and mother Margaret, all my Estate aforesaid to the Baltimore Public Library, that its directors may expend it most advantageously for such an excellent institution. I give and bequeath to my wife Mary Ann the handsome Compensation promised by the Salt Company to be made me for my services, in case my Shares in that undertaking should become of no value in consequence of a wanted diversion of the Scheme.
 I hold one third of three tickets with Mr. W. Egge and Mr. Bowdoin in the 2^d Washington Lottery; I bequeath my Chance ^{therein} to my Mother Margaret Armstrong.
 This writing I declare to be my last will and Testament and request Isaac Smith Esq. to superintend the Settlement of my affairs in this County as interested in the
