In obedience to an Order of the Worshipful Court of Northampton hereunto annexed we have examined the accounts submitted to us by Isaac Smith agent for Sarah Savage Executrix of William Stith decd on which we make the following report, to wit all the charges in the above account we find supported by proper Vouchers, except the following. To Cash p.d Henry Smaw £0..13..0. do paid Cov.d Simkins £1..7..9 do paid Benjamin Griffeth 3..1..9 do paid Nathan Drighouse £0..6..9 ditto paid William Cotton £3..19..9 ditto paid John Major £0..12..6 to support the above, proven accounts have been presented, but no receipts on them, we also find 9/9 charged for postage, for which no Voucher is produced, also cash charged paid to Thorowgood Smith in part discharge of a bond, which bond is not taken in, and no receipt taken for the payment of £60 — Admitting the correctness of all the charges we find a balence due by the Executrix to the Estate of William Stith of £517..12..4½ This balence arises from debts collected, the Sale of Land and part of the personal property; we think it proper also to state that a large part of the personal Estate remains unsold in the hands of the Executrix as will appear on a Comparison of the account of Sales with the appraisement — Given under our hands this 10th of September 1799.
