That on or about the month of August anno 1688 this deponent being at the house of William Gafeyone late of the County of at 120 acres... in some of the manor of Africa... there doth live with Bridget Gafeyone the granddaughter of the above said William Gafeyone and his wife and so did say said William Gafeyone say William Harmarson for I give you here witness Granddaughter Bridget Gafeyone Negroe George Gafeyone and Bess the said William Harmarson two days after carried the negroe by name of Bess to his own plantation he wold have carried her either to his Negroes with him but that the aforesaid William Gafeyone complained that he had a great charge on hand and said if George were removed he shold be great suffer'd in his charge whereupon William Harmarson said to the said said William Gafeyone he wold leave her to the said George and her children till the aforesaid wife George wold be dead say done sometime after which was a week after the said William wold married to the said William Harmarson same the day of the foresaid William Gafeyone and demanded a deed for the above named Negroe which the said William Gafeyone wold willingly grant thereabout and Henry Gafeyone wold be witness of the said will and testament of Robert Gafeyone Yaller to Robert and Bridget Gafeyone did in the aforesaid said Robert Gafeyone it was mentioned that he was bound to Bram to give the former negroes a sum mentioned with them In except to the said William Harmarson and his son and daughter to go on the body of Bridget his wife and for want of a better use to Robert Gafeyone as he was a very negroe and for want
