A black and white photograph of an open book. The pages are heavily stained, discolored, and appear aged. There are faint, illegible markings on the pages, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The binding is visible in the center crease. On the left edge of the left page, there is some faint, handwritten text that appears to say "Co to".

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some faint smudges and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound, showing the stitching and the inner cover material. There is no text or other markings on the page.
