(At a Court held for Northampton County the 8th Day of February 1778
This Will was offered for proof by Mary Dixon Widow of the Testator by Selacy Dill her Attorney in person of Ralph Dixon His at Law of the Decedent who objected to the validity of the said Will by George Corbin, and James Taylor his Opponents, whereupon the subscribers Witnesses and others were sworn and examined relative thereto (where Depositions by consent of Parties are ordered to be taken at the next Court) On Consideration thereof and of the Arguments of the Counsel on both sides the Court were of Opinion that the said Writing contained the true last Will and Testament of the said Selacy Dixon (except some Words interlined between the Ninth and tenth lines which were put in by the Writer after the said Will was subscribed by the Testator the said Writing not having been acknowledged by the Testator after such interlineation) and ordered that the same be recorded
