Leading friend in Mops I kindly salute you with hope of your health as of little need I am at this present so I write you sincerely that I have sent you some goods in Mr. Mobs by the way of New-England and that I would send a good quantity of goods by my man Richard Nicholls and I want another by another account of my own named Benjamin Stoan. I have heard of the sailing away of Mr.
Wolcott from the coast of New-England & that I have heard of the death of my servant Benjamin Stoan but thanks be to God I have that Richard Nicholls is safe arrived but I have not as yet received any letter from him since that he came into your port but what I hear by some that came from thence that was having 15 tons of shipt that came about 14 days from into Portsmouth but did not as yet come into our Downs I have heard as yet from any the firm Richard Nicholls and he says that all is not well with him but however I hope the best I desire the Lord to preserve him I know that he has much business on his hands by reason of Bonds death that it seems to me something difficult for him to go through without the assistance of some friend I know that you have given him 40 best assistance and I hope that you have that I do not write all did hope you for Richard Nicholls as I did desire you to come to see in my former letter & Mr. Wolcott the first time I hope you have received by Mr.
Thurston ship & I did desire you to assist my servant as much as you could & I could not have done you more I have sent you in Mr. Buthers a young man the which would desire you to take into your house & that he has made a drink & lodging & to employ him in the best manner that you shall see him capable of I conceive that he will be fit to teach you Dutch for he can write a very good hand like English & is able to write you Dutch if you require it most of all I would desire you to take him in & to employ him till such time as you shall hear from me which shall be by the next shipping God willing his name is Samuel Matherhead I hope that my man has made bold to leave you & moreover of my debts he has left in the country I have desired you to take care of it & to repay it to me you have deferred my request and I will give you satisfaction for your care & I shall find me willing to serve you here in England & I have sent you a letter by the young man named Sam. Matherhead your father is well also that in haste I commit you to the hands of the Almighty
