 In Obedience to an order of Northumberland Court Dated the 10th Day December 1750 We the Subscribers having met and Viewed the Road Leading from Newmans Neck to our Court House find it at this time

Insufficient made to by a Pond of Water being in that Part Which Goes through Melmes Laine but it is our opinion that the Inconvenience may be Easily Remedied by cutting a Small Drain from the Pond to a fall at every Little Distance and by that means made very Sufficient
