The Commissioners are still impressed with the belief that it would require the sum of fifty thousand dollars per annum to afford ~~instruction~~ ^{education} to the poor children in this county as contemplated by law.

The commissioners has leave to remind the President and Directors of the Literary Fund, that the sum remaining in their Treasurers hands is alone to be allotted to the small sum they receive, which compels them to be very cautious to prevent their exceeding the sum they receive; as they have for years done.

Schools of all sorts, of which were kept up only during the season.

That from the best information they can obtain, there are in the said County poor children entitled to the benefit of the fund,
of whom have been educated for different periods, to wit:
for one quarter of the year or less,
from a quarter to half a year,
from half the year to three quarters,
from three quarters to a year.

Resolved, that the following form of the Annual Report of the School Commissioners, prepared in pursuance of the 3d Section of the Act of Assembly passed the 2d day of March, 1822, entitled "An Act to amend the Act entitled an Act to reduce into one the several Acts concerning the Literary Fund" be adopted.

Attest,

J. BROWN, Jr., Accountant of the Literary Fund.

That there remained unexpended in the hands of their Treasurer agreeably to his Account settled by the Commissioners and certified to the Clerk of the Court, the day of 182 a balance of -

Since which he has received, for the quota of 182 ,

That they have examined, corrected, and allowed their Treasurer's Account for the period embraced by this report, and find that there has been expended

For do. to the Treasurer of the Commissioners.

For do. to the Clerk of the Commissioners, -

Making a total expenditure of - - -

And leaving in the Treasurer's hands for future application the sum of - - - - - }

The said Commissioners further report that (Here the Commissioners will state the success of their operations; the difficulties presenting themselves and the remedies therefor; the general improvement of the poor children under their care; what sum will be annually required to effect the intention of the law; what changes they consider to be essential in the present system; together with any other matter they may think the occasion calls for.)

County, day of

The said Commissioners further report that their mission to have a good part of the poor children in this County educated has not been successful, owing to want of the poor laws in neighborhoods where there are not a sufficient number of other children to school to induce a person to undertake to teach a school, and the small sum of Thirty dollars per year is all that is offered at the disposal of such Commissioners being too small to admit of their employing teachers of any description for the indigent education alone. In other neighborhoods there are a great many parents and guardians of indigent children that are unable to furnish the said children with the necessary and clothing that are necessary to enable them to attend school. There are also others that cannot dispense with the labor of their children.

The Commissioners are pleased to say that the most of the children that have sent to school this year are progressing liberally well, considering that the schools in this County are not the best calculated for instruction, the Teachers being usually such as they would not think of employing if their funds were sufficient to enable them to procure those Teachers that they would select for the instruction of free of instructing the rising generation.

Some of the children are spelling, some reading, some writing, and others reading, writing, and spelling.

The Commissioners are informed with the idea, that the sum of five thousand six hundred dollars would enable them to have Teachers that are qualified to teach, and also to pay for instruction to all the indigent children in the County.

There are four of the Teachers that have not brought in their accounts for the present year in consequence of the day having been very early in which we had our meeting for the purpose of receiving their accounts.

operation in the said County

14 Schools of all sorts, of which

19 were partly attended by poor children, none were kept up throughout the year
none were kept up only during the summer season

That from the best information they can obtain, there are in the said County

That there remained unexpended in the hands of their Treasurer agreeable to his Account, settled by the Commissioners and certified to the Clerk of the Board
the day of November 1824 a balance of £415 44

Since which he has received for grants of 1824 £287 52 1/2

That they have examined, corrected, and allowed their Treasurer's account for the period embraced by this report, and find there has been expended

For the tuition of children for the last year and out there included in his account the sum of £64 75

For the tuition of said 75 children 284 41 1/2

For Books paper &c. 18 60

For allowance to the Treasurer of the Commissioners 7 68

For allowance to the Clerk of the Commissioners 8

Making a total expenditure of 382 47 1/2

And leaving in the Treasurer's hands for future applications the sum of £60 48 1/2 4370 90

The Commissioners further report that the poor children they sent to school the present year did generally progress tolerably well: some of them are spelling, some spelling and writing, some reading and writing, and others reading, writing and spelling.

The Commissioners also report that the sparseness of the population in this county prevents them from procuring teachers in a great many neighborhoods: thus preventing them from extending the benefit of the fund to a great many poor children.

The Commissioners would take the liberty of suggesting the propriety of Quakers of the Slave fund making a small allowance to procure cheap clothing for a number of poor children whose parents and guardians are too indigent to admit of their furnishing them with the necessary clothing to fit them to attend school.

The Commissioners are of opinion that the further sum of Twelve hundred dollars would enable them to procure good Teachers (of which they are very deficient) and also to surmount the many great difficulties that are presented to them, in consequence of the small sum they receive from the fund.

At the annual adjourned Meeting of the School Commissioners of the county of Northumberland, at the courthouse of said county, assembled, according to law, on the 21st November 1820, Present: Samuel Downing President of the Board and Joseph Ball Esq. Edwin Nelson Thomas Pitt Richard Healey and Samuel Lysons. (The whole number being nine). The following report was agreed on:

The School Commissioners for the county of Northumberland report to the the superintendent of the Literary Fund, that within the year ending the 31st September 1820.

There have been in operation in the said county thirteen common schools that from the best information they can obtain, there are in the said county one hundred and seventy four children entitled to the benefit of the fund: of whom thirty five have benefited for different periods, during the year, at the said common schools.

That the average price of tuition, exclusive of books, paper, &c has been ^{3s 6d} per week (where the School Masters were able to answer to the number of days the said poor children did actually attend school) and where they could not answer to the number of days the said children did actually attend school 2s 6d per week and fifty cents of Annam.

That there remained unexpended in the hands of their treasurer, on the 21st day of November 1820, a sum equal to his account, settled by the Commissioners at their last annual meeting, and certified to the clerk of the court a balance of £100 00 00

The Commissioners would further lay leave to report to the superintendent of the Satisfactory Fund, that in selecting children which they consider as coming within the meaning of the law, in doing so in the law. They have in the first place selected those that have no parents living; secondly, those that have no father living; and lastly those whose parents are unable to extend to them the blessings of education; all ways taken care to select the children of the most indigent of the poor.

The School Commissioners are sorry that their treasurers account and this report, do not come up precisely to the forms prescribed, in consequence of the schools having all been in operation previous to receiving the late excellent law, but they have endeavored to make them conform as nearly as possible to the said forms.

The Commissioners, are unable to suggest anything that they could possibly think an improvement to the present laws and regulations, unless the gas-tax were greatly increased, as a constraint of their putting the district system of free abolition of operators.

The School Commissioners of Northumberland County, would also refer to the superintendent of the Lottery Fund that they have appointed Thomas S. Lyman, Treasurer and Thomas Bell Clerk for the ensuing year.

At the adjourned annual meeting of the School Commissioners of the County of Northumberland, at the Courthouse on the 8th day of November 1830. Present Joseph Ball Esq. President of the Board and Thomas Ball Richard Messers Thomas J. Pyper Edwin Nelson & William D. Shaw and John S. Wallin and John Blackwell (the whole number appointed by the Court being nine) the following report was adopted:

The School Commissioners for the County of Northumberland Report to the Superintendent of the Common Schools that within the year ending the 30th September 1830.

There have been in operation in the said County, 6 Common Schools

And from the best information they can obtain there are in the said County, 10 poor children entitled to the benefit of the funds; of whom 104 have been educated for different periods during the year, at the said Common Schools.

That the price of tuition at the said Common Schools exclusive of books paper &c. has been four cents for every day's attendance of each poor child.

That there as remained unexpended in the hands of their Treasurer, on the 21st 1830, agreeably to his account, settled by the Commissioners, at their last adjourned annual meeting, and certified to the Clerk of the Court, a balance of

Three which he has received for the School quota of 1830

That they have examined, corrected and allowed their Treasurer's account for the period comprehended in the report, and which accompanies this report marked B and find that there has been paid by him, as follows

For tuition of the said 104 children (attending the common Schools) as of the annexed Abstract of School

The School Commissioners report to the Superintendent of the District that there is on an account amounting to seven 200 dollars due May 1st from the tuition of 200 poor children 180 cents, which was not presented to the Treasurer until after he had closed his account for the present year, which was the cause of his not having paid it. He will now pay it and include it in his next year's account.

The School Commissioners consider all orphan children, who have no estate, and also all other children whose parents have not the means of educating them; as coming within the meaning of the term "pauper" used in the law. They have not fixed on any particular ages between which to select the poor children, nor is there any preference given by them to boys or girls; deeming it equally important that all should be brought forward at least that best of all books the Bible.

The Commissioners think the sum at present received from the District fund will be sufficient to school all the poor children that they will be enabled to get to attend School: but they look forward with great anxiety to the time when the quota of their county will enable them to commence the District free school system.

The Commissioners are pleased to have it in their power to report that the poor children sent to school by them, did make as much improvement in their studies; as they could have reasonably calculated on.

It is with regret that they report that some of the teachers that they were compelled to send the poor children to school, were un-suitably deficient in point of qualifications: but they did prefer not sending them to school at all; to sending them to teachers whose moral characters were depraved.

The School Commissioners of Monttumbelaine County, report to the superintendent of the Library, funds, that they have appointed Thomas S. Gifford their Treasurer and Thomas Bell their clerk for the ensuing year.

Report to the superintendent of the Literary Fund, that within the year ending the 30th September 1821

There have been in operation in the said county 11 Common Schools
That from the best information they can obtain, there are in the said county, 190 poor children entitled to the benefit of free schools, of whom 171 have been educated for different periods during the year at the said common schools.

That the price of tuition, exclusive of books, paper &c. has been 1/6 for every day's attendance of each poor child.

The Commissioners consider the word "indigent" used in the laws as applying, first, to orphans who have no income; secondly, to those whose mothers are widows and that have no income; and lastly to those whose fathers are dependant on their bodily labor for the means of support, where those means are regarded by the Commissioners as insufficient to enable the father to pay for the tuition of the child.

The Commissioners have not decided on any age between which to count the poor children as they are compelled to send them at the time that they can be best spared by their parents or guardians: nor have they given any preference to boys or girls; as they wish by all means that all should be enabled to read the bible.

The Commissioners are of the impression that the quota of the county assessed upon the Lottery fund is amply sufficient to consider all the poor children in the county, that they can induce to attend school until the district free school system can be put in operation.

The Commissioners have the pleasure to report that some of the poor children have made very rapid progress in their studies.

The benevolent report that they are compelled to report that some of the teachers to whom the poor children are sent are unreasonably deficient in point of qualification; but they are compelled to send to them in consequence of there being no other teachers in the neighborhood.

They are unable to suggest any improvement to the present system until the trustees will enable them to commence the school for colored children.

The benevolent would be leave to report that they have appointed Thomas Schuman Treasurer and Thomas Bell
Clerk of the Board for the ensuing year.

The School Commissioners consider the term "indigent" as used in the laws, no comprehending all orphan children whose income is insufficient to educate them. 2nd The children of such parents as have no property and are unable by their labor to support their families and educate their children 3rd The children of such parents as have some little property, but not enough in the judgement of the Commissioners, with very suitable exertion of the head of the family and all of its members capable of labor to support the family and educate the children.

They have not fixed on any ages between which to send the poor children, being compelled to send them when most convenient to the parents or guardians.

They give no preference to either sex, deeming it equally important that all should be taught to read.

The Commissioners are satisfied that the quota of this county at present received from the Literary Fund amply sufficient to educate all the poor children in the county that they can induce to attend school.

They are unable to suggest any improvement to the present excellent system.

The Commissioners are pleased to have it in their power to report that some of the poor children have profited very well, and indicate superior genius.

One Commissioner ~~wishes to~~ report that they have appointed Thomas L. Shanon Treasurer and Thomas Bell clerk of the Board for the ^{on} ensuing year

The Commissioners do consider all orphan children that have no estate, and all other children whose parents are unable by their labor to support and maintain their families and educate their children according to the meaning of the term "Orphan" used in the laws.

They have not fixed on any particular ages between which to look the children; as they have to send them at the time they can be best placed by their parents or guardians. Nor do they give any preference to boys or girls, the funds being amply sufficient to educate all the poor children in the county that they can possibly attend the schools.

The children have progressed in their studies as well as they could, ^{have} ^{so} far as to have done from the manner in which they attend the schools.

They are extremely sorry to be compelled to report that most of the teachers are now deficient in point of qualifications; but they are bound to say that their moral characters are unexceptionable.

They are unable to suggest any alterations or modifications of the existing laws and model school regulations.

The Commissioners would beg leave further to report to the Superintendent of the Relief Fund, that their having expended more in Books than they were by law authorized to have done, was in consequence of their having furnished with Books the poor children in the county that attended the Relief Sunday Schools (whose poverty is such that it prevented them from attending ^{the} week schools; but should it be done as by the Superintendent of the Relief Fund that they have in this instance acted improperly then Treasurer feels himself bound to repaid the amount paid for the Books furnished to the poor children that attended the Relief Sunday Schools.

The Commissioners have appointed Thomas J. Spoma their Treasurer and Thomas Bell - then closed for the ensuing year.

Signed by the order of the Board
Wm. B. Munroe, President.
