

(58) on the Name of G. T. Brown, the 28th December 1804, I make for others of St. Lucie County and State of Florida, being my intention of body but of mind well and disposing memory, humblye to a Moste highly God for the same, as Constable was about his to be my last Will and Testament in the manner & form following viz^r to his^r: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Polly, & for her her lands & goods forever, my negro boy named Sam, one long man called Margaret, one feather bed & furniture, one painted pine Chest, and all that may fall to me by her from her fathers Estate after Mr. father having made provision in his will for me after my mothers death that is for me to inherit the lands wherein, my mother now lives and two Chuse of his negroes — Therefore my will and desire is that if my mother should die before my wife comes to be my widow that what what I have left her above with all the rest of my estate both real and personal and all that may fall to me from my fathers Estate should be kept together on the land abd plantation deviod to me by my father, under the Controul of my executors hereinafter named for the support of my wife during her widowhood, and for the Schooling and Support of my daughter Nancy, in her Minority,

The schooling and support of my daughter Nancy, in her Minority, and of my daughter Nancy should marry before my wife Ceases to be my widow, that the whole of my Estate, including in the lands and part that I have devised my wife above, shall be equally divided between my said Daughter Nancy and my wife, and the moiety that my wife takes to be proportioned by her during her widowhood, and at the expiration of her widowhood all that I left her for her support (except the part I have devised to her and her heirs) with the whole of the residue of my estate to fall to my daughter Nancy, to her and her heirs forever there being a sufficiency of grain and provisions for the support of my stock the present winter, therefore my will is that they shall not be sold until the next autumn without my executors thinks it will be most advantageous to my Estate to do otherwise. I will that if my daughter Nancy shall die before she comes of age of twenty, that my wife may have my Negro boy named Gilbert to her and her heirs, and if my wife should at that time be my widow she shall have the moiety of the part I have left my daughter Nancy during her widowhood. I do hereby constitute and appoint my Cousin William Franklin and my brother Constitutes and appoint my Cousin William Franklin and my to be my widow, that the whole of my estate, consisting in the land and part that I have devised my wife alone, shall be equally divided between my said Daughter Nancy and my wife, and the moiety that my wife takes to be possessed by her during her widowhood, and at the expiration of her widowhood, all that I left her for her support (except the part I have devised to her and her heirs) with the whole of the residue of my estate to fall to my daughter Nancy, to

her and her heirs forever there being a sufficiency of grain and
provisions for the support of my stock the present winter, therefore my
will is that they shall not be sold until the next autumn without out my executors thinks it will be most advantageous to my Estate to do otherwise I will that if my daughter Nancy shall die before she becomes of age of majority, that my wife may have my Negro boy named Gilbert to her and her heirs, and of my wife should at that time be my widow, she shall have the custody of the part I have left my daughter Nancy during her widowhood I do hereby constitute and appoint my Cousin William Thompson and my friend John Pappan Executors of this my last will and testament for testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal

159. The Day and year first above written Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Andrew Spurley to be his last Will and Testament in presence of us Benjamin Scalon, Nathan Howlett

In Notteray County Court 4 April 1805

This last Will and Testament of Andrew Spurley as aforesaid sealed in Court by William Spurley & John Bappon the executors herein named, and the same was proved by the oaths of Benjamin Scalon and Nathan Howlett and ordered to be Recorded

Teste Francis Fitzgerald Esq Truly Received Chipping O.C.

At a Court held for Notteray County at the courthouse on the second day of May 1805 came John Bappon and Andrew Howlett their executors named in the will and on their motion a certificate is granted them for obtaining a probate of the said will in due form they having at Chipping Court last entered into a bond for that purpose together with Nathan and John Howlett their securities and now have the sum prescribed by law.