Whereas an order of the Court of Orange in the Subscribers has examined the Debt of Joseph Earle deceased with respect to Joseph Earle deceased's acct with the State of John Earle deceased, Vase of the Opinion that from the information from Doctor Thomas Walbee and agreeable to the will of that John that the money he had put to loan in the hands of that Thomas with the Interest arising on the same as by Mr. J. Earle's acct ought not to be settled in a judicial state & whereas the balance which appears to be due from John Scott ought to be accounted for by J. Earle as his son & not Goddard to show that there is any part of it due and also that the money laid out by J. Earle in certificates & requests to his State ought not to be allowed as a credit as they cannot be produced nor made appear that they were applied to the use of that John Earle's estate that on the whole we find agreeable to the foregoing said acct that that Joseph is indebted to that John Earle's balance of £ 183. 18. 2 1/4

Pursuant to an order of the Court of Orange we the Subscribers have examined the Ac^t of the Court of Orange produced to us with respect to Joseph Earle's A/c with the Estate of John Earle deceased, & one of the Opinion that from the information given to us by Thomas Walby and agreeable to the will of the said John Earle that the money he had put to loan in the hands of the said Thomas with the Interest arising on the same as by Mr. J. Coates Ac^t ought not to be settled in a capital of State, whereas the ballance which appears to be due from John Earle ought to be accounted for by J. Coates as his bond is not produced to show that there is any part of it due and also that the money laid out by J. Coates in certificates & request to his State ought not to be allowed as a credit as they cannot be produced nor made appear to that they were applied to the use of the said John Earle's estate that on the whole we find agreeable to the foregoing A/c that the said Joseph is indebted to the said John Earle's ballance of £183. 18. 2 3/4 and money requiring any loan to be repaid & hereafter that may be made appear by either Party
