In the name of God Amen I Garland Burnly being sick but of a sound disposing mind do make this my last will and testament I'm privity It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid as soon as can be done conveniently to the estate. Item It is my will that after my debts are paid the rest of my estate real & personal be kept together undivided for the support of my wife and children until one of my children attains to the age of twenty one years, or until one of my children marries, which should first happen. It is my further will that when one of my children comes of age or marries which should first happen that then one third part of my Estate be allotted to my wife for her life and the residue be divided into three parts the one part to be given to such child which comes of age or marries and the other two thirds of the residue be kept with my wifes third part for the support of my wife & other children and so when a second or third child comes of age or marries that one half of the residue be allotted to such second or third child as in the case of the first and at the death of my wife it is my desire that her third part of my Estate be equally divided between my children should be then dead bearing issue that such issue take the mothers part. Item I give to my Daughter Sally & her heirs my negro girl Polly. Item I give to my Daughter Judy & her heirs my negro girl Liddy. Item I give to my Daughter Lucy & her heirs my negro girl Luinda. But it is my will that these three negro girls be kept with the rest of my estate, and upon the division that each be allotted and delivered to my children respectively as I have given them as a part of their respective shares. Item it is my will that if either of the negro girls given as above to my daughters should die before the child comes of age or marries to whom such dying negro would be long that then the child who should lose her negro specifically given as above should have such loss made good to her out of the rest of my estate so as to make the parts of my children equal at the respective times when their parts shall be delivered to them and it is to be understood that if either of the negro girls given by name to my children respectively should have children before the division of my estate that such children should be taken into the computation of my estate in making the division I then give & bequeath to my brother John Burnley my gun and I do constitute and appoint my Brother Reuben Burnley Mr. Alexander Shepherd Mr. Robert Taylor executors and my wife executrix of this my last will & testament given under my hand & seal this seventh day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety three
