Pursuant to a decree of the Court of Chancery made to us directed to settle the accounts of the executors of Richard Graves deceased of the said county - We have examined and investigated the same, a statement of which is herewith annexed, distinguishing those that are vouched from those that are not. The accounts appear to be stated fairly and the unvouched accounts appear reasonable and just, they being the common expenses of a family - We have taken under our consideration the accounts existing prior and subsequent to the said testator's death which we conceive come within our province as commissaries from the said decree to us directed, and under this impression we have offered them to the court as stated in the annexed account: As to the unvouched accounts herewith annexed as far as they concern William Graves one of the executors of the said Richard deceased the annexed deposition of Robert M. Webb and others accompanying this report which we submit to the consideration of the court, which appear to support in a very great degree ^{the greater} part of the said William's account, which the court will decide upon - Under these considerations and for these reasons as stated in this report we submit as far as we have gone the matter to the Judgment of the court, proceeding to a final settlement and division of the said estate to a future date as the court may think proper to direct - Certified under our hands and seals this 23rd day of May 1806.

The undersigned object to the Item marked thus in Thomas Graves account * Page the 7th supposing the charge too great; also the Item marked thus Φ in Wm Graves account supposing the testimony too vague to admit in the account. the court will judge of propriety or impropriety of these objections.

Pursuant to a decree of the Worshipful court of Chancery bearing date December 1803 wherein it was ordered that John Moore, Thomas Rowe, John Morrison do settle up the accounts of the executorship of William Graves and Thomas Graves executors of Capt. Richard Graves deceased, and divide the estate, or such part as should be shown as for that purpose, among the heirs and devisees. After allotting unto Joanna Graves an equal part in lieu of one given her by her father which is in the said account.

agreeable to the Will of said deceased and make report thereof

The Subscribers did meet on the second day of January 1804 at the dwelling house of the late Richard Graves (John Moore, of the commissioners failing to attend) and proceeded to carry the above said decedent's order into effect first by allotting unto the afore mentioned Joanna Graves negro Girl named Alice with seventeen pounds the Value of two years hire in lieu of duty who was dead, then Valuing the residue of the slaves belonging to the estate in ready money which agreeable to the best of our Judgment were worth £600, which divided amongst eight legatees produced seventy five pounds each; and as it was not practicable to divide the said slaves equally as to price, it was agreed on among the legatees, that those who should draw a lot of greater Value than seventy five pounds should draw on the executors for their surplus in favour of those who should draw a lot of less Value than seventy five pounds, which order the executors agreed to accept at twelve months sight, allowing interest thereon from the date of said order - The legatees and their representatives proceeded to Ballot for their shares of negroes, the negroes by name and the amount of their Values were drawn by the legatees as follows Vizt being the half of the three hundred and thirty four pounds to be accounted for by my daughter Frances Porter, one feather bed and furniture and fifty pounds in lieu of a horse, one chest of draws and toilet which is called hers and two or three Counterpanes which is marked with her name, to her and her heirs forever. 7^{thly} I give to my daughter Patsy Alcocke the other third of all my lands as above and the other hundred and sixty seven pounds to be accounted for by her sister Porter out of her third of the lands aforesaid, to make the said sum of three hundred and thirty four pounds, one feather bed and furniture and fifty pounds in lieu of a horse, one chest of Draws and Toilet which is called hers, and two or three Counterpanes marked with her name, to her and her heirs forever. 8^{thly} I give the Balance of my estate that may be remaining, to my five children to wit Joseph, John, Frances Porter, Lucy and Patsy, to be equally divided by sale or otherwise as may be agreed on among themselves, to them and their heirs forever. 9^{thly} Whereas my sons lands given them by me is more valuable than those given my daughters, with the advantage of the five hundred pounds advanced to my daughter Porter, and being willing and desirous that my children be made nearly equal in their portions of my estate, it is my will and desire, that my son Joseph Alcocke pay each of my daughters Frances Porter, Lucy Alcocke and Patsy Alcocke each of them the sum of one hundred pounds in three equal annual payments, that will be to each the sum of thirty three pounds six shillings and eight pence for three years. And it is also my will and desire, that my son John Alcocke pay each of his sisters the same sum of one hundred pounds in like manner his brother is directed to do, which said sums I give to my said daughters and their heirs forever. 10^{thly} And lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my sons Joseph and John Alcocke and my son in law Kemp Porter executors to this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other or former wills by me made.
