Embry's
Will
p. 2

In the name of God Amen. The twenty Second Day May In the year of our Lord Christ one Thousand seven hundred and fifty nine William Embry of Saint Thomas' Parrish and County of Orange, being sick of Body but of Perfect mind and memory thanks be given to God, there fore Calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to Die To make and Ordain this to be my Last Will and Testament. That is to Say Principally and first of all I Give and Recommend my Soul In to the hands of Almighty God that gave it me, and for my body I Command to the Earth to be buried in a Christian Like manner Nothing Doubting but at the General Resurrection I Shall Receive the same Again by the mighty Power of God; and as Touching such worldly Estate where with it hath Pleased God to Bless me in this Life with, I Give, Devise, and Dispose of the same in the following manner and form. first Desiring that all my just Debts be Paid. ----- I Then Give and bequeath unto my Dearly beloved Wife Margret One Negro fellow named John Jack and one Negro Wench named Minn ----- I Then I Give and bequeath unto my well beloved Daughter Betty, One Negro man named George ----- I Then I Give and bequeath unto my well beloved Daughter Anne.
One Negro boy named Jack; and if any Misfortune should happen to either of the Two Negroes so that they or Either of them should Die before either of the Children come of Age that it should be made up to her who Loseth the same out of the Increase of the Negroes name Minn. Left to my wife, and as for my moveable Estate I Give and bequeath unto my Wife untill the Two Children come of Age and then to be Equally Divided between her and the Two Children. And I Constitute my Wife Margret Embrey, and my Father John Embrey, and James Robt son to make and Ordain them my Only and Sole Executors of this my Last will and Testament all singular my Estate by them -----
