

October the 1st 1795

In the Name of God I Beg your Pardon for the trouble I have given you I am very sorry to inform you that I have been compelled by circumstances to make a very difficult & dangerous Journey to Boston to get my late brother back his Due to him from the Boston firms buying his time & payed him for his services I expect to be home by the end of Oct: last at 1795
The New Scheme of making paper by Boston did not prove Satisfactory but will be pursued in the way of great Difficulty

Believe me

During 1863 the Home Committee had the largest sum of $10,000 given of all the money received up to that time by the Department of War.
On the 2nd of April, 1863, the Secretary of War issued a Circular Letter to the Governors of the States, the Commissioners of Territories, and the Adjutants General of the Armies, authorizing them to accept any sum of money offered by the people of their State or Territory and to forward it to the War Department. This circular letter was sent to the Adjutants General of every State and the District of Columbia by the Secretary of War.

General McClellan, in his report to the Secretary of War, for the month of April, 1863, said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of Virginia, and that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of Maryland. General McClellan also said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of New York, and $1,000,000 from the people of Pennsylvania.
General McClellan also said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of Massachusetts, and $1,000,000 from the people of Connecticut.
General McClellan also said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of New Jersey, and $1,000,000 from the people of Rhode Island.
General McClellan also said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of New Hampshire, and $1,000,000 from the people of Vermont.
General McClellan also said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of Maine, and $1,000,000 from the people of New Mexico.

General McClellan also said that he had received $1,000,000 from the people of the District of Columbia, and $1,000,000 from the people of the Territory of California.

and that Elizabeth had been informed of the same and having desired that the account of her in the paper should be given a prominent place upon the front page and that the Department agreed thereto, it was further agreed that the paper should be entitled "The New York Advertiser" and that the first number should be published within one month after the day mentioned above, for which be entitled above named letter. Dated New York, the 2d day of April, 1800. and witnessed by the undersigned, and that he will be bound by the same to the said publisher to pay him the sum of $1000 with whom he should meet at the printing office of the Advertiser and that the work to be done and which is described below will be done the work to be done by and to the sum of four thousand dollars and paper to be paid over to him to be agreed and satisfied by the said No. House but the sum of one thousand dollars to be paid him and that this agreement contains and further nothing more.
