The annexed Ac^t contains the Debts and credits which Jane Waller administratrix of William Waller Dec^d exhibited to the Commissioners appointed to settle her acct. Current. There is some uncertainty as to the particular time when some of the payments were made. The Commissioners have therefore numbered the Vouchers on which the payments rest, corresponding with the number of each entry in the Debts, all of which are here with submitted. It appears to your Commissioners from the last Will of William Waller Dec^d That "after the payment of his debts, Jane Waller his widow has the possession of the whole of his estate, real and personal during her Widow hood, or life" They therefore consider it improper to carry any part of the profits arising from his estate into the acct Current of his administration inasmuch as she holds after paying his debts the estate real and personal by devise and not merely as administratrix. Jane Waller the administratrix states to your Commissioners that She knows of no Debts due from her Deceased Husband except a Debt of eleven pounds due to his Brother Hamilton Waller which she has no rec^d
