In the name of God amen. I John Baugh senior of the County of Powhatan being in my right mind, senses and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament utterly revoc-ing and disannulling all former Wills and Testaments made and ordained by me.

It is my devise to be intended in a decent and Christian like manner at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named, and after my just debts and funeral charges are paid I dispose of my estate in the following manner. Viz.

I lend unto my beloved wife Anne Baugh during her natural life the whole of my tract of land and plantation whereon I now live, and at her decease it is my Will that my said Tract of land shall be sold by my executors to the best advantage and the money arising from the sale thereof, to be equally divided among my three following named children Vizt George Baugh, Archibald Bolling Baugh, and Ann Egleson Baugh, to them and their heirs and assigns forever. ~

I also direct that my slaves, Stock, Household and Kitchen furniture, plantation Utensils and all my personal estate of every description, shall remain in the possession of my said wife during her natural life for her support (except such legacies as I have heretofore given up to sundry of my Children) which I shall more particularly mention hereafter in this Will, and at the decease of my said wife ^{it is my will} ~~it is my~~ said Slaves, and all the personal estate which I have lent to her, shall be sold to the best advantage, and the money arising from the sale of the same be disposed of in the following manner.

Item, It is my Will ~~and desire~~ that my executor, at the decease of my said wife, out of the money arising from the sale of my estate pay to my two following named Sons to wit, John Baugh and William Baugh the sum of Two hundred pounds current money for each of my said Sons John and William to them and their heirs forever. ~

Item, It is my Will that the sum of One hundred and twenty five pounds be raised out of my estate, as soon as the situation of my wife will admit without distressing her and my infant children, and paid by my executor to my son John Baugh, which is to make him equal with my other sons, to him my said son John Baugh and his heirs forever. ~

Item, I do hereby confirm a right to certain slaves which I have formerly given to my son Richard Baugh and have not furniture, plantation ^{also under my name} and all my personal estate of every description, shall remain in the possession of my said wife during her natural life for her support (except such legacies as I have heretofore given up to sundry of my Children) which I shall more particularly mention hereafter in this Will, and at the decease of my said wife ^{see chp my} it is my said Slaves, and all the personal estate which I have lent to her, shall be sold to the best advantage, and the money arising from the sale of the same be disposed of in the following manner.

Item, It is my Will ~~and desire~~ that my executor, at the decease of my said wife, out of the money arising from the sale of my estate pay to my two following named Sons, to wit, John Brough and William Brough the sum of Two hundred pounds current money ~~for each~~ of my said Sons John and William to them and their heirs forever.

Item, It is my Will that the sum of One hundred and twenty five pounds be raised out of my estate, as soon as the education of my wife will admit without disheping her and my infant children, and paid by my executor to my son John Brough, which is to make him equal with my other sons, to him my said son John Brough and his heirs forever.

Item, I do hereby confirm a right to certain slaves which I have formerly given to my son Richard Brough, and have not until now, made him a right and title to them, but have heretofore put them in his possession. Vizt. Will, Kit Phaeta with all her former and future increase ^{also see Turkey and} Billy descendants of Nancy, all which Slaves I devise to my son Richard Brough and his heirs and assigns forever.

Item, I give and bequeath to my daughter Rebecca Goods the following named slaves, to wit, Polly and her four ^{named} children, George, Edmund, Eliza and Sam also ^{also} ~~also~~ by the name of Nancy, the daughter of Patience, by her my said Daughter Rebekah and her heirs and assigns forever. —

Item I give and bequeath to my son William Baugh my three following named slaves, to wit, Sam Oliver and Sally to him my said son William and his heirs and assigns forever. —

Item It is my wish that my son George Baugh should remain with his ^{said} mother and superintend the business of the plantation and assist his ^{said} mother during her life, and that a salary be allowed him at the discretion of his mother. —

Item I lend to my daughter Ann Eggleston Baugh, when she arrives to eighteen years of age or marries my Negro Lucy and her three children Adam, Dolly and John, also one feather bed and furniture and a horse and saddle during the natural life of my said wife and at her decease it is my Will that whatever may be remaining at that period of the property bequeathed to my said daughter Ann Eggleston Baugh shall revert to my estate again. —

Item I do hereby appoint my friend Jacob Michaux, and my two sons Richard Baugh and John Baugh to execute and fulfil this my last Will and Testament. —

And lastly it is my Will and desire that there may be no appointment made of my estate. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twentieth day of November in the year Anno Domini, One thousand eight hundred and five.

At a court held for Powhatan County the 21st day of May 1806. This last Will and Testament of John Baugh dec^d was presented in court and proved by the oaths of William Clarke and Jacob Michaux, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and thereupon ordered to be recorded. - And on the motion of Anne Baugh certificate of administration with the Will annexed is granted her for obtaining probate thereof in due form, she having qualified thereto, and entered into bond with security as the law requires, it appearing to the Court that the executors named in the said Will have refused to qualify.
