

Bowhatan County, Virginia and Ordered to be recorded

Teste James Boidexter, C.P.C.

John Cox's Will

In the name of God Amen, I John Halloway Cox of the County of Powhatan, being in a low State of Health but of Sound mind and perfect memory, contemplating on the uncertainty of life and the certainty of Death and that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and Ordain this my Last Will and Testament, In the first place I commend my Soul unto God, who first gave it, and my Body to the Earth from whence it came, to be interred in a Christian like manner at the discretion of my Executor hereafter mentioned and after my Last debts and funeral charges are paid I dispose of my estate in manner following (to wit) I give and bequeath to my Brother, Edward Cox all my Estate that I now possess, together with my Legacy left me by my Father in his Last Will and Testament as of Record in the County Court of Powhatan, together with all Monies due me either by Bonds or other wise to him and his heirs forever.

It is my will and desire that my aforesaid Brother Edward Cox, should be my Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and further it is my Will that there should be no appraisement of my estate In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal This Twentieth Day of February Eighteen hundred and four.
