1836 February 16th. In pursuance of an order of the worshipful Court of Prince Edward County, I was directed. We the undersigned Commissioners have examined the above stated account, and find the same correctly and fairly stated, each charge supported by proper vouchers excepting a charge of $10. paid Geo. Bickley and the sum of $5. 8. 0 paid Elizabeth Marshall, which by us is considered reasonable; It will be seen on reference to the accounts of Mrs. P. Richardson and of Posing J. Richardson & Co. store accounts, that the sum of six hundred and fifty two dollars and fifty three cents is charged as being paid on account of the widow and orphans, which will account for the apparently large store accounts from which accounts as within stated, there is a balance of $496. 00 1/2 due the orphans, without any charge for Commission, which the S. Richardson Exrs. Bro. P. Richardson declines charging.
 Given under our hands this date above.
