

My dear friends of Good Hope, I am glad to hear of your visit to the City of the Living and the memory of the life of the God calling to mind my mortality. Do make this my last Will and Testament in manner following. I do give and bequeath to God that gives it my body to be buried in hope of a glorious Resurrection. As to my worldly goods I do dispose of them as follows. I give I give and bequeath to my Daughter Jane Baker One Negro Boy named Sam with his shavers and saddle and two young Daughters Martha Baker One Negro Boy named Hodges, with her shavers and saddle give to my dear beloved wife Jane Baker all the rest of my estate to be disposed of by her in her life and after death, as it shall seem meet to her. I give all my negroes and land to my dear wife Jane Baker and her heirs forever. I do hereby certify that my Will is made in the presence of my friends and neighbors.

to be disposed of in her life as to her Death, as it shall seem most to her after all just Gods willings & I am willing to do so with my Dearly beloved wife Jane Baker & her Executors of their my last Will In Witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of February 1763

Richard Baker
Duglass Baker

in presence of George Pittiday
Samuel Baker
Andrew Baker

At about half past three o'clock on the 16th Day of September 1763 This last Will of Duglass Baker was presented in Court by James Baker the Executor thereof and was read out by the Court and the same was proved by the Oath of the witnesses thereof & Entered to be the True Will

John Levee