Dear Sir

Since writing to you yesterday it has occurred to me that

Tuesday next is Prince George Court day & being too unwell to give my attendance, & at same time imagine it may be necessary for Mr. Pythreps Will to be proved as soon as possible shall be much obliged to you to inform Miss Susanna Pythreps that I hope she will excuse me from acting as an Executor being well satisfied from my ill state of health, addid to the great distance am from the Estate, I shall be found a very improper Person to discharge that trust: As you mentioned to me yesterday that I was the only surviving Sister named in the Will it may be necessary that the Court should be informed of my resignation, which may be done by this Letter.

Miss Pythreps being of lawful age can become an Administrator with the Will annexed, or get some friend that she can confide in to Administer, which will be as effectual as if the Executors named in the Will had qualified. I am with every sentiment of Respect

P.S. Ray goes ship Pythreps this letter to morrow, as I expect she will want her Mothers Will proved on Tuesday.

Reports of the State of the Clerk's Office

In Obedience to an Order of Court to us directed in the Month of May last, to examine the Clerk's Office, We have gone thro^o the same, which We find in the following Situation: — There is no Brown Book in the Office from the year 1777 to January 1787. when One is begun by Captain Rufel but very little is done in it. — There is no Execution Book in the Office from June 1784 until December 1786. The Executions issued since December 1786. to December 1787. are fairly entered in a Book kept for that purpose. — No part of the Tax on Lands, Wills Appraisals &c is accounted for with the Public since Jan^y 1787. — The Papers which we are told belong to the Time between the Beginning of 1777. to 1778. seem to be in great Confusion. & We are convince'd. It can never be otherwise till an Order-Book fully brought up, is kept in the Office. Given under our Hands this 7th of March A.D. 1788.
