 will —

In the Name of God Amen, I Thomas Plerson of the County of Prince George, am in Perfect health and sound memory but considering of this transitory life and that all men must die, do make and ordain this to be my last will and Testament in manner and form as followeth: I give and bequeath my Soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it me and my Body to the Earth to be decently buried as my Executors shall think proper, and as for my worldly Estate that it hath pleased God to Bless me with in this Life, I dispose of it in the following manner —

Prmises, My will and desire is that my loving wife Elizabeth Peterson do keep my whole Estate together in the same manner as I have left it untill she marries or dies and then to dispose of it as she thinks proper. But if she marries she is to divide it and to receive five hundred pounds out of the Estate as soon as it can be raised which is to be within three years —

Item, I do constitute and appoint my two trusty Friends Majr William Blairborne and John Cocke of Liffey County my whole and sole Executors of this my last will and Testament revoking all other will by me heretofore made and do ratify and confirm this and no other to be my last will and Testament. My Will and desire is that my Estate may neither be Inventoryd nor appraised. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 2^d day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty two, Signed and Sealed —

Thomas Peterson

At a Court held for Prince George County at the Court house on Tuesday the Eight day of September 1789 —

This foregoing last will and Testament of Thomas Peterson decd. was presented into Court by Thomas Blairborne who made oath thereto according to Law; and the same being proved by the oaths of Edmund Ruffin jr. John Stoddicant jr. and William Baggsdale jr. to be wholly written in the hand write of the said Peterson, the same is by order of Court truly recorded — and upon the motion of the said Thomas Blairborne a Certificate is granted him for obtaining Letters of administration with the Will annexed in due form —

Lucy Gilliam
ad. will.

In the Name of God, whereas Meriwether Shelton, Esquire, late of the County of Hanover, deceased, did by his last will and Testament, in writing bearing date the 13th day of March one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight devise his whole Estate, therein mentioned to his Sisters Jones and Lucy Gilliam, for life in such proportions, as in and by the said Will, may appear, with power (among other things) to his said Sisters to dispose of his Estate so devised by will, or other writing particularly, to his Sister Lucy, power to dispose of the whole Estate, real and personal which he possessed in the Counties of Goochland, and Fluvanna, At the said Lucy Gilliam, enabled to do so, by the bounty and permission of the Almighty, do in virtue of the power, vested in me, as aforesaid, make publish and ordain this my last Will and Testament, and dispose of the Estate aforesaid in manner following

Imprimis, I give to my Son John Gilliam and his heirs forever, one moiety, or half part of the tract of Land called Elk Island in James River, in the County of Goochland, and one moiety, or half part, of a Tract of Land, in the County of Fluvanna, adjacent to the said Elk Island, both which said tracts of Land where of the Estate, of the said Mereweather Skelton, to hold the said moiety, or half parts of the said two tracts of Land to him my said Son John Gilliam, and his heirs for ever —

Item, I give to my Son James Skelton Gilliam, the other moiety, or half part of the said tract of Land called Elds Glenda, in James River, in the County of Goochland, and the other moiety, or half part, of the Tract of Land above mentioned, lying in the County of Flavanma, to hold the said moiety, or half parts of the said two tracts of Land to him my said Son James Skelton Gilliam, and his heirs for ever — but if my said Son James Skelton Gilliam should die under twenty one years of age and without issue living at the time of his death then it is my will, and I do hereby order, devise and devise the said moiety, or half parts, of the two tracts of Land aforesaid, to my Son Rubin Mereweather Gilliam, and his heirs for ever —

Item, I give to my Son John Gilliam a bay mare part of the Estate aforesaid, which is now in his possession and I do hereby give, and relinquish to him, all my right to the foals she may have, from the day of the date here of;

Item, I give my Son James Skelton Gilliam a Sorrel Mare, part of the Estate aforesaid, and I do hereby give and relinquish to him, all her foals, which are now at Elds Glenda, or which she may have hereafter —

Item, all the Slaves, Stocks of cattle, money, and what ever else, of the Estate, of my said Brother Mereweather Skelton, may be in my possession, or belonging to me at the time of my death and was, and is intended to be included, in the moiety of his said Estate, subjected to my use, and disposal, by his will aforesaid, I do hereby, give, devise, order, and direct, that the same shall be equally divided among my following children, to wit, Rubin Mereweather, Elizabeth, Jane Mereweather, Mereweather Skelton, Susanna Bathurst, and Anne, or such of them, as shall be living at the time of my death and the children, which either of them who may die in my life time, shall have and be living at my death the Children aforesaid to divide amongst them the Share of their deceased ancestor; and the Children which may be born after the making of this my will, it being my intent and meaning, that, such Children which I may hereafter have, shall take equal share with my Children above named, provided they, or either of them, be living, at the time of my death, such division to be made specifically, or by making Sale of the said Slaves Stocks and personal Estate, and dividing the money arising by such Sale, at the discretion of my Executors herein after mentioned, the division to be made, as soon, as conveniently may be after my death, and finishing the Crops on hand, at that time; which crops, is to go in the same manner, as if this will had never been made —

Lastly for the due, and effectual performance, of this my will, I do nominate, constitute, and appoint, my Sons John, James Melton; and Reuben Mercweather, Executors and Trustees thereof, for the purposes aforesaid. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal the 23rd day of February one thousand seven hundred and Eighty four —

This Indenture Bipartite made this 13th Day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine Between Martha Williams Widow and Executrix of William Williams son of William late of the County of Prince George deceased of the first Part and Thomas Williams of the County of Halifax in the State of North Carolina, Sarah Williams of the County of Prince George and Samuel Vaughan and Ann his Wife of the said County of Prince George of the other Part, Whereas the said Martha on her Intermarriage with the said William Williams deceased was possessed of a considerable Estate consisting of Slaves and personal Property, that is to say one Negro named David, and one other Negro named Easter together with one House and one feather Bed, and fifteen Barrels of Corn, one iron Pot and one frying Pan, two Pewter Dishes four pewter Basins, and one pewter Plate and two hundred pounds weight of Bacon, and whereas the said William Williams by Virtue of his Intermarriage possessed with her the said Martha became entitled by Law to the whole of the Property aforesaid as of his own proper Estate and possessed himself thereof accordingly, and whereas the said William Williams hath since departed this Life intestate possessed of the Estate aforesaid together with a Tract of Land lying and being in the County of Prince George aforesaid upon Blachwater containing by Estimation 175 Acres or thereabouts more or less, and was the same whereon the said William Williams lived at the Time of his Death and which descended to him from his Father, and also some other personal Estate and whereas also the said Martha Williams is entitled by her Intermarriage to her Dower or third Part of the Land aforesaid and one moiety of all the personal Estate whereof the said William Williams was possessed of of his ^{own} proper Estate at the Time of his Death, and the said Thomas Williams, Sarah Williams
