The Deposition of Col: Edward H. Mosley taken in a Suit in Chancery depending and undetermined in the Court of Princess Anne County Between David Scott Complainant and Richard Sparrow and Margaret his Wife, Abigail Murray and John Cawson Respondents. This Deponent being of lawful Age and first sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God deposes and saith: That some ^{Time} after the death of Richard Scott, he recollects to have been present in Court, when a paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of the said Richard Scott bearing date the first day of May 1783, as well as he recollects with the Names of Thomas Grainger, Sally Williamson and Dinah Grainger subscribed as Witnesses, was offered for proof. That the said Sally Williamson who was the then surviving Witness was called upon to prove the said Will, when the said Williamson observed that he never did subscribe such a paper as a Witness, nor did he know any thing of the execution of it, and positively refused to prove it, that in consequence of his saying that he knew nothing of the said Will or of signing it, the Court discharged him from swearing, and further he saith not. This Deponent being interrogated saith, that he found the said paper Writing among the Papers in the Clerks Office, and that in consequence thereof he made the following Note or Memorandum, upon the same: To wit: "This Will is not Recorded but is Ordered to be lodged in the Office till
