This Indenture, made the First Day of December in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety Seven, Between William X Dyson of the County of Princeps Anne, and Commonwealth of Virginia of the one part, and William Nimmo Son of Gershom of the same County and Commonwealth, of the other part. Whereas the said William X Dyson by Virtue of his intermarriage with Catharine, Lawson (Widow of Thomas Lawson) who was one of the Daughters of David Pilgore, late of said County dec. became entitled as ^{tenant} by the Curtesy of England, to a proportion of the Lands of the said David Pilgore which on his death descended in Coparcenary to his two Daughters, to wit, the said Catharine and Mary Pilgore. And Whereas the said William Nimmo Son of Gershom having since intermarried with the said Mary, the said William X Dyson hath agreed to release all his Right and Title to the said Land as aforesaid, to the said William Nimmo for the Sum of Nineteen Pounds five Shillings and Ninepence. Now this Indenture Witnesseth, that the said William X Dyson for and in Consideration of the said Sum of Nineteen Pounds five Shillings and Ninepence, by the said William Nimmo to him in Hand paid, at and before the sealing and delivery of these Presents, the Receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge, and thereof acquit, and discharge, the said William Nimmo his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, hath remised, released, and for ever quitted claim and by these Presents doth remise, release, and for ever quit Claim of, in and to all his Right and Title of the Lands of the said David Pilgore as aforesaid To have and to hold the same, to the said William Nimmo and his Heirs during ^{the life of} the said William X Dyson, in the same Manner, as he himself, might or could have held, or enjoyed it.

This Indenture, made the First Day of December in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety, seven, Between William N. Dyson of the County of Princeps Anne, and Commonwealth of Virginia of the one part, and William Nimmo Son of Gershom of the same County and Commonwealth aforesaid of the other part, Whereas the said William N. Dyson by Virtue of his intermarriage with Catharine Lawson (Widow of Thomas Lawson) who was one of the Daughters of David Kilgore, late of said County dec. became intitled as ^{tenant} by the Curtesy of England, to a proportion of the Lands of the said David Kilgore which on his death descended in Coparcenary to his two Daughters, to wit, the said Catharine and Mary Kilgore, And Whereas the said William Nimmo Son of Gershom having since intermarried with the said Mary, the said William N. Dyson hath agreed to sell unto the said William Nimmo for the Sum of Nineteen Pounds five Shillings and Ninepence. Now this Indenture Witnesseth, that the said William N. Dyson for and in Consideration of the said Sum of Nineteen Pounds five Shillings and Ninepence, by the said William Nimmo to him in Hand paid, at and before the sealing and delivery of these Presents, the Receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge, and thereof acquit, and discharge, the said William Nimmo his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, hath remised, released, and for ever quitted claim, and by these Presents doth remise, release, and for ever quit Claim of, in, and to all his Right and Title of the Lands of the said David Kilgore as aforesaid To have and to hold the same, to the said William Nimmo and his Heirs during the said William N. Dyson, in the same Manner, as he himself, might or could have held, or enjoyed it.

Hundred and Ninety eight. Between Willis Wicker and Betty his Wife of the County of Prince George and Commonwealth of Virginia of the first Part, Thomas Robinson of the second Part, and Joel King of the third Part, Witnesseth, that the said Willis Wicker and Betty his wife for and in Consideration of the sum of Two Hundred and Eighty Pounds current Money, which the said Wicker owes to the said Robinson, and which he honestly desires to secure, and pay to him, and also for, and in Consideration of the sum of Twenty Shillings, by the said Thomas Robinson to the said Willis Wicker, in Hand paid, at, and before the sealing, and delivery of these Presents, the Receipt whereof he doth hereby acknowledge, and thereof, account, and discharge the said Thomas Robinson, his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, have granted, bargained, conveyed, aliened, transferred, and by these presents do grant, bar, again, with alien, transfer, and confirm unto the said Thomas Robinson, one certain Tract or Parcel of Land with the Appurtenances, situate and lying in the said County, containing One Hundred and Fifty Acres be the same more or less, and to the same Tract of Land, which the said Thomas Robinson purchased of Willis Wicker, of said County, and which he has lately sold to the said Willis Wicker. To have and to hold
